FOREWORD

During the course of the school year we view the unfolding of the seasons: from fall to winter to spring and finally to summer. Likewise a student at Christian Brothers Academy does not unfold in an instant, rather it comes with hard work and over the space of time from freshman to senior year. Freshmen arriving in September at CBA are reminiscent of a seed falling on fertile soil in the autumn of the year. The seed lies dormant in the cold winter months, just as during the rocky adjusting period of the second year, the talent of the sophomores remains latent. We know that in the spring germination takes place and buds begin to sprout above ground, likewise in junior year the true character of the student begins to manifest itself. The summer solstice marks the apex of the seasonal year; at this point the once insignificant grain has attained its fulfillment. Graduation day is the solstice of a CBA student and represents the achievement of maturity.

DEDICATION

Few events or activities in which we seniors have participated in the past four years were unaffected by Brother Robert. He has labored untiringly behind the scenes in every aspect of school life. As moderator of the yearbook, he guided his staffs to three first place awards in as many years. A teacher non-pareil, he has instructed almost all of us at one time or another in either Biology, English or Religion. Six proms and innumerable social affairs come under his domain as social director. Taking over the athletic director's office this year, he brought the first wrestling district finals to CBA, the basketball team emerged South Jersey champions and the track team copped the Shore track title. To express our gratitude for the sometimes unappreciated services rendered, we the Class of '66 dedicate this yearbook to Brother Azarias Robert.

REVEREND BROTHER
AZARIAS ROBERT, F.S.C.

Middle States Evaluation

Drawing from their involvement in an average school day, committee members parallel C.B.A. to various evaluative criteria both in particular and in general areas. The fruit of this evaluation will profit the growth of the Academy in years to come.

Christian Brothers Academy
Newman Springs Road
Lincroft, New Jersey

January 17, 1966

Dear Friend of CBA:

In view of your interest and support of Christian Brothers Academy I would like to share with you the good news I gave at the January Fathers' Club Meeting. The enclosed report on our recent Middle States Evaluation is a vitally important step in the growth of the Academy and an occasion of great joy to us all. I am sure that you are proud to be part of this dream which became a reality.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

. . .The fourteen members of the Visiting Committee were welcomed to Christian Brothers Academy by the entire staff at a banquet held at the Lincroft Inn on the evening of November 1, 1965. . .From that moment every member of the Committee became thoroughly involved in the life and heartbeat of CBA. They became part of every classroom, office, workroom and play area. They met with teachers individually and in conference groups. They mingled with the boys to catch their spirit and they had conference sessions with student leaders and with groups chosen at random. And when the boys went home, they continued their work until eleven or twelve each night. They proved to be a very exacting group of professional people who were tremendously interested in contributing their service to CBA. . .

One month later we received the official Middle States Evaluation Report which makes very precisely detailed commendations and recommendations. We immediately organized the entire staff into committees to study carefully every suggestion and to put into practice what is feasible at present time and to plan for the implementation of improvements that are desirable for the future. . .

In the Graphic Summary of the Evaluative Criteria CBA received a rating of Very Good to Excellent in every department except the Library and Instructional Material where our rating was Good. . .

We are throbbing with life and encouragement. Our lowest rating was "Good" and we have received an overall rating of "Very Good". We can thank God for the fine work that has been accomplished in so short a time, and we can pledge to you our determination to expend ourselves in an effort to bring to you an even better Christian Brothers Academy.

Sincerely yours,

Brother A. Stephen

It is indeed a privilege to live in an age wherein we can witness more changes in the Church in three years than have occurred in the three hundred years previous. The Declaration on Christian Education typifies the renovations of Vatican II, and is characteristic of the theme of Pegasus '66:

"Therefore, children and young people must be helped with the aid of the latest advances in psychology and the arts and science of teaching, to develop harmoniously their physical, moral and intellectual endowments so that they may gradually acquire a mature sense of responsibility in striving endlessly to form their own lives properly and in pursuing true freedom as they surmount the vicissitudes of life with courage and constancy. Let them be given also, as they advance in years, a positive and prudent sexual education. Moreover, they should be so trained to take their part in social life that properly instructed in the necessary and opportune skills they can become actively involved in various community organizations, open to discourse with others and willing to do their best to promote the common good."

Growth through

1. Brother Benedict discusses the advantages of St. Vincent's College with D. Smith.
2. Brother Camillus maintains an up-to-date file for every student at C.B.A.
4. Informal conferences are a chief tool of personal guidance.

3. K. Yetka and J. McGovern drop in on Fr. Devaney for a casual talk.

Through a small group conference with Brother E. Paul, sophomores W. Pare, M. Adams and R. Krenza get a taste of vocational guidance.

Freshmen, under the direction of Brother Dominick, learn that with their physical growth must come social and spiritual growth.

2. With improved methods of testing, CBA's guidance facilities are greatly enhanced.

1. Through college personnel, Brother Benedict learns of the advantages of various campuses.

3. Brother Benedict and counselors from others schools exchange successful approaches to some basic guidance questions.

4. J. McGovern goes over his personal record with Brother Benedict and plans how to improve his area of weakness.

Retreat time affords Frank Genovese an opportunity for spiritual relaxation.

FRESHMAN RETREAT

Reverend Father Michael Devaney O.M.I. conducted the annual freshman retreat on October 5 and 6. The retreat stressed the need for the student to realize his position as a Christian today.

After Mass, students show reverence toward God through Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Fr. Devaney explains a facet of the Christian's "Good News."

Nearing the termination of the retreat, the students try to awaken in themselves a sense of God.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES

In pin-pointing the Christian challenge, Father Devaney enlightens the Sophomore Retreatants.

In the process of building a solid foundation for the Christian life, CBA students are opened to the threefold experience of instruction, reflection and apostolic action. Realizing the need for taking the role of Christ, CBA has brought each individual student progressively into an atmosphere of religious action.

Instruction

Insights contributed by Brother C. Patrick stimulates the Red Bank High C.C.D. discussion group.

Ever available for individual instruction, Father Devaney discusses pertinent topics with senior G. Figaro.

In the true spirit of Ecumenism, CBA men were exposed not only to Catholic missionaries from across the sea, but also to Methodist and Anglican ministers.

Correlations of ideas between the teacher and his students leads to both interesting and informative Religion classes.

K. McDermott gives constructive criticism on Brother Az. Robert's visual aides.

Vocational Director of Christian Brothers schools, Brother Bernardine, poses a thought-provoking question, "What is a Brother?"

To broaden our religious experiences the Byzantine Rite is celebrated at CBA with all its embellishments.

Reflective Experience

Fr. Allen Borsuk leads the student body to a greater understanding of the Gospel through the Liturgy of the Word.

Eucharist in the Byzantine Rite is received under both species.

Realizing our faults against community, we humble ourselves with a spirit of renewal and thus receive absolution for our sins.

February 3rd, brings with it the blessing of the throats as St. Blaise intercedes to God for us.

Our response at Mass is to accept God's gift to us.

Daily reception of the Eucharist is a significant way of helping us become conscious of our Christian vocation.

The school community activity participates in monthly Eucharist celebration.

Peer group discussions among Seniors allow for deeper insight into contemporary problems.

CBA offers periods of intensified reflection on "Who we are?" and "Where we are going?" allowing us the opportunity to better ourselves.

BACK TO SCHOOL DANCE

Summer tans were fading, but enthusiasm for the new year was just beginning to gain momentum by Sept. 25, the night on which the BACK-TO-SCHOOL DANCE took place. To insure success, the Mods were invited to furnish entertainment, and a successful dance it was —over 225 couples attended and as a result $225.00 was placed in the Student Council Fund.

MR. A. CHESNEY
Coach

Wrestling coach, Mr. Chesney, patiently looks on to notice any flaws his team may take advantage of.

Colt wrestlers loosen-up in the two man warm-up exercises.

C.B.A. receives its third and final District award from the wrestling prowess of Bill White.

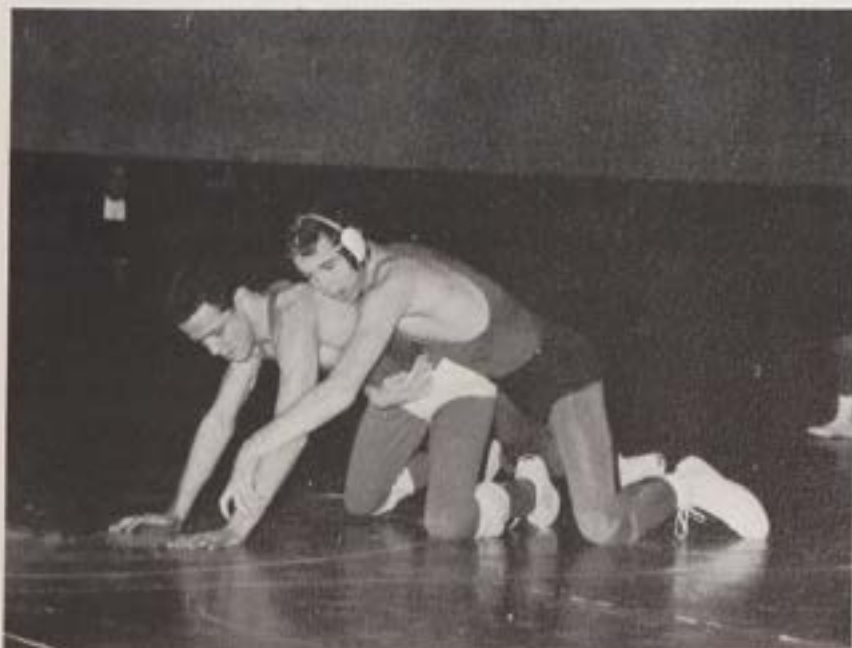

Bob Black scores a point on an escape against a tough Middletown competitor.

COLTS SECOND IN DISTRICT 23

Tom Dinen's 19-second pin against Perth Amboy holds 1965-66 record
for Colts

Mike Scarpellino prepares to take the best possible advantage as he is set in the referee's position.

Using the "Navy ride" C. Carlissimo is on his way to a reversal for two points.

Strategies before the matches are cooperative efforts between coach and team members.

An "inside switch" proves effective for John Killelea for another two point score.

JUNIOR VARSITY WRESTLING

FRONT ROW, left to right: P. Black, D. DeSimon, J. Dinen, C. Schuler. BACK ROW: R. Seaton, G. Sagui, H. Tyndall.

Carefully following the leverage rules of wrestling, Bob Beck scores three more points for C.B.A.

1965-66 SCHEDULE

7 Wins—3 Losses

CBA	Opp.

3	Essex Catholic 40

FRONT ROW, left to right: K. Walsh, M. Moschitta, F. Graff, F. Genovese. BACK ROW: J. Killelea, J. O'Neil, W. Dudley.

A quick reversal by Fred Graff's opponent proves futile.

Although Bob Deleplain seems in "desperate straits" he is attempting a "re-switch" to pull out of his predicament against Asbury Park.

HARVEST HOP

The autumn chill in the air did not cool the enthusiasm that was prevalent within the cafeteria on October 16. Fomented by the Rogues and maintained by the participants, the spirit at this dance was typical of the tone of the school during the entire year. The crowd of over 500 students from both CBA and other schools contributed $235.00 to the Activity Fund of the Student Council which was responsible for the success of the affair.

By excelling in the Optimist Contest and the Azarias Forensic League, left to right: J. Anderson, J. Toole, P. Kennedy, F. Hencken, D. Cameron, R. Stern make C.B.A.'s Forensic fortunes in the future favorable.

John Toole, in an attempt to refute a point made by his opponent, quotes a reliable source.

Scoring a total of 137 points in the Trenton Catholic Forensic League Grand Tournament, the Forensic team won the Sweepstakes Trophy for the best all-around team. STANDING, left to right: R. Poly, E. Flynn, D. Barber, R. Shanley, J. Toole, F. Hencken, P. Kennedy. SEATED: D. Whelan, M. Trentacoste, M. Cronin, J. Marz. Forensic members seated were also individual winners, and so merited a chance to represent the Trenton Diocese in the National Catholic Forensic League Tournament held at Miami in May. Respectively they were: third in ex temp, first in ex temp, first in declamation, and first in original oratory.

C. Uchrin and C. Drake are acclaimed by Brother Stephen for first place in Declamation in the Intramural Forensic League.

Stating the affirmative plan to curve inflation, R. Di Fidele overwhelms his opponents with forceful points.

By their diligent and conscientious efforts the following have earned membership in the National Forensic League: FIRST ROW, left to right: C. Drake, J. Anderson, A. Perna, G. Uchirin, D. Viggiano, E. Suski, E. Flynn. SECOND ROW: A. Gardella, C. Straub, P. Kennedy, J. Pallone, R. Stern, D. Cameron. SEATED: J. Alexander, J. Toole, F. Hencken, C. Uchirin.

National Forensic League Winners, LEFT TO RIGHT: R. Shanley—Speaker of the House Award, J. Marz, D. Barber—3rd in Debate, E. Flynn—2nd in Humorous Interpretation, J. Toole—3rd in Debate, M. Trentacoste—2nd in Ex Temp, D. Whelan—3rd in Debate, M. Cronin—1st in Declamation.

High School Tournament Winners, Left to Right: J. Toole and D. Barber, third place in Debate at the Roselle Catholic Tournament; R. Poly, third place in Dramatic Interpretation at Roselle; E. Flynn, J. Marz and M. Trentacoste, respectively 2nd in Humorous, 1st in Original Oratory, and 1st in Ex Temp at the Long Branch Speech Festival.

DRAMATICS

D. Capone is hard at work as his accomplice J. Valerio, "the laziest man, keeps a "sharp" lookout.

The Irish rebel of "the Rising of the Moon," J. Otis, is ordered to move along by Sgt. J. Melosh.

CBA Dramatics Society presented two one-act plays in mid-January. The first production was "The Laziest Man in the World," a comedy involving two casts, and the second was "The Rising of the Moon," a drama also employing a dual cast.

"Getting the drop" on the burglars, S. Masonoff utters that familiar cry, "Hands Up!"

Wanted posters are put up by D. Brophy and J. Newcomb for the capture of the Irish Rebel.

Awaiting their first curtain call the nervous cast makes a final application of makeup.

THE BLACKBOARD JUNGLE

Actors and production staff alike listen attentively to the constructive criticisms of Brother Richard, moderator, following their first performance.

"But Honey, we need the money, and working at a vocational school isn't as bad as all that."

Disorganization and lack of discipline are the characteristics of Mr. Dadier's new class.

"What's so funny?" inquires Mr. Dadier, as the class loses control upon hearing Greg Miller's (D. Kelly) comments on the new teacher's approach to discipline.

"Oh, Oh! Look who's here!"

CBA is extremely fortunate in having an excellent Social Studies Department. Besides having an outstanding teaching staff, the Social Studies Department attempts to give the students ample opportunities for exceptional extra curricula activities such as:

1. Monmouth County Student Government Day. Four students represented CBA and held various county positions such as Freeholder, Surrogate, etc.
2. Student Exchange Day with Matawan Regional High School.
3. United Nations Day, where several students participated in a test conducted by the U.N.

DEPARTMENT

Using a diagram, C. Canfield explains supply and demand to Brother Richard's senior Economics class.

Sophomore 1 receives further insight as J. Serpico delivers a report on the Monroe Doctrine of 1823.

Junior 12 and 15 are exposed to the elements of contemporary "Christian humanism" in an informal chapel conference.

The culminating event of a Junior's religious experience is the school-sponsored closed retreat. As the retreat progresses each student is afforded the opportunity to reorientate himself to a Christian value structure. Hopefully this year's retreats at Newton, N. J., Oakland, N. J., Morristown, N. J., and Ridgefield, Conn., have accomplished their pre-designed purposes.

By reading the Epistle, Tom Ryan actively takes part in the "priesthood" of the laity.

Sophomores Aid Varsity in Compiling Winning Record

To keep the talent coming up from the ranks, sophomores and freshmen must be given the opportunity to gain the experience of competition. Through the operation of Frosh-Soph track meets they were given the chance to obtain this experience. Many of the more able sophomores were also used in varsity competition, and they proved their worth by gaining valuable points in some crucial meets.

Second year high-jumper J. Edsall clears the bar at 5'2" in a Frosh-J.V. meet at Long Branch.

Without the support of back-up men such as pole vaulter John Brewin, C.B.A.'s track teams would lack the depth needed for a long season.

Under the expert direction of Brothers John and B. Edward, about 15 seniors met twice per week after school to extend their study of mathematics into the field of calculus. Considered invaluable by the students concerned, this voluntary course was offered primarily to give the college-bound student a headstart on freshman math. No credit was derived as far as permanent records are concerned, although progress tests were administered to determine the effectiveness of the teaching.

New Additions to CBA Life

Among the new activities initiated at C.B.A. this year is the Senior Seminar. Composed of reflective students and moderated by Brother John, the group met twice a month to discuss the ideas of contemporary writers and philosophers. Under analysis were Cather in the Rye, The Existentialist's Posture, Mr. Blue, the writings of Teilhard de Chardin, and the "Playboy Philosophy". These selections epitomize the questions and problems that today's youth face. After completely exhausting a topic many found a new meaning, a new value to life and all the things that compose it. Perhaps the single, most important value of the seminar was that it afforded all concerned the opportunity to express their own ideas and to evaluate those of others in answering the questions: "Why am I here; where am I going?"

PROM

MAY 28

As a final highlight of the school year, the Class of '67 held its Junior Prom on the evening of May 28, 1966. Upon entering the gym, students and their dates were almost magically transported into the world of Phinas Fogg and Cantinflas—the world of Jules Verne's "Around the World in Eighty Days."

A tantalizing buffet, prepared by alumni mothers, was served at midnight, while music was supplied by John Campi and his Orchestra. The musical highlight of the evening was the appearance of a local group, "The Montereys."

At 1:00 A.M., the theme of the Prom still in mind, the guests of CBA rushed off to meet their own deadlines.

In contrasting but complimentary manners, the retreatants participate in the spiritual as well as the physical exercises of a retreat.

To fully receive the benefits of a good retreat, individual leadership is encouraged.

SENIOR RETREAT

The priesthood of the people and the clergy is symbolically expressed in the offertory procession.

To give one more energy to participate in reflective exercises, periods of subdued relaxation are offered.

To live the fully Christian life, understanding Christianity's foundations is absolutely necessary . . .

Religion Class transmits the concepts while the annual closed retreat invokes a personal response to this value structure . . .

Retreat discussions, movies, and reading become the means by which a self-awakening can be achieved . . .

Conferences given by the learned retreat master offer unusual stimuli for retreatants.

SENIOR OUTING

Wednesday, May 18, 1966

To "Kick off" their four-day holiday, Seniors left school Wednesday, May 18, 1966 and held their annual Senior Outing. In addition to trips to the beach, Shea Stadium, and Staten Island, Seniors and their dates participated in a picnic held by W. Laufer at his home in Deal. This event concluded the social activities held by the graduating class of '66.

"There's a few in every group."

The presence of Brother Robert adds an academic "flavor" to the barbecue.

Without this valuable commodity a barbecue wouldn't be complete, so Paul Christopher cuts into a piece of watermelon.

"Our age is still marked with complex problems, varying from poverty to national morality. But to meet these problems, a brand new brand of people has begun to emerge. They are not apathetic as they have been called; they are not immoral as many have assumed; and they are not self-centered, as slanderers have contended. Indeed, they are first and foremost Christians, with the highest goals and sincerest motives that a young people ever had. Secondly, they are messengers, who have something to give to the world, not only by their words, but by their example.

And now we formally assume the responsibilities of these people, for we are this distinctive brand of humanity."
