CONTRIBUTORS

DEDICATION

Dedication — The senior class of 1991 has the honor of dedicating this yearbook to two outstanding faculty members who have served the CBA community for over a quarter of a century: Mr. Anthony J. Chesney and Mr. Vincent Cox.

THEME

Theme — The Road Not Taken by Robert Frost reveals the profundity of decision to the individual. For us, CBA was the road less travelled by, and it "has made all the difference."

ACTIVITIES

74

Activities — Variety of interest is abundant at the academy. Whatever their activity, students are always able to participate in it as well as explore others.

SPORTS

108

Sports — CBA is exemplary in its ability to produce hand in hand academic and athletic excellence. CBA athletes labor vigorously to perfect their talents in each sport. From Cross Country in Fall to Baseball in Spring, superior sportsmanship is always the focus of the CBA athlete.

Seniors — Having stood the test of time and endured all the challenges that CBA has offered, we now prepare for our next phase of life. As a result of CBA's training, we are confident and ambitious. We thank CBA for all its gifts.

FACULTY

48

Faculty — No group experience is without its leaders. The combination of religious and lay faculty at CBA provide as guides of inconceivable importance. We can boast no achievement without first giving credit to the exceptional team of instructors that has revealed our potentials and elevated our abilities.

UNDERCLASS

142

Underclassmen — Just beginning or continuing their journey, we realize the continual development of the talents of our underclassmen and wish them luck in future endeavors.

DIRECTORY

186

Directory — The bonds made between CBA students are special. As we go our separate ways, let us never forget the friends we have acquired.

Dedication

1.9.9.1

The Class of 1991 proudly dedicates this edition of Pegasus to two teachers who have each provided over a quarter century to education at Christian Brothers Academy: Mr. Anthony J. Chesney and Mr. Vincent Cox.

To faculty and student alike, Mr. Chesney and Mr. Cox serve as the "living memory of C.B.A." They have seen each graduating class and their collective memory serves to keep alive the spirit and legends of the Academy. Their influence has spanned through two generations, as the sons of many alumni are now at C.B.A., and a number of their former students have returned to share in the task of educating the young men of the Academy. Together their almost sixty years of service have enlightened and inspired the five-thousand-plus alumni of Christian Brothers Academy.

This is Mr. Chesney's thirtieth year at the Academy. During this time he has taught everything from business management, to practical economics, accounting, health, physical education and even earth science. He initiated the wrestling program, and worked for many years as baseball coach. His involvement in extracurricular activities include his favorite football, and the now inactive Gun Club and a Jazz Listening Minicourse. Since 1982 he has coordinated the Annual Fun Run. Mr. Chesney is noted for his sense of humor and his warm rapport with students. Whether a student is "hitting the floor" or being handed that intramural football championship trophy, Mr. Chesney provides a "Tony Chesney is a dedicated teacher who has made a great contribution to CBA. His candor, sense of humor and enthusiasm are a part of CBA. Those students who have come in contact with him over the years will certainly remember him."

Vernie Cox

continuous up-beat and positive flair for the C.B.A. community. He and his wife Barbara have three children, and his son Kevin is a member of the Class of 1985.

A year after Mr. Chesney arrived at C.B.A., he was joined by Mr. Cox. Coming from Archbishop Molloy High School in Queens, NY, Mr. Cox was hired to teach history and to coach basketball. During the twenty-nine years he has been at C.B.A., Mr. Cox has taught history on all four grade levels, as well as an elective in practical economics. His success as basketball coach is legendary, winning seven state championships and three-hundred fifty games. Mr. Cox is also active in intramural soccer and softball. This year, Mr. Cox moved into the Alumni Office, and has reduced his teaching load. Still, nothing beats his accounts of C.B.A. in the past, and his collection of stories about alumni. A class with Mr. Cox is always a moment of history. The great basketball coach and his wife Maureen are the parents of four daughters, and they are already proud grandparents.

These two men have provided each of us with a sense of the meaning of Christian Brothers Academy. We, the Class of '91 recognize their contributions to the Academy, and hope for them continued success and the rich rewards of their hard work and principled dedication to molding the minds, hearts and souls of the community of C.B.A.

*Two roads diverged in a wood, and I—
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
from "The Road Not Taken"
by Robert Frost*

Life's progression is fired by decision. "Way leads on to way", and each choice is an irreversible commitment to some destination. Whatever the choice, the affect is always significant. At some point we arrive at a crossroads: "Two paths that diverge" and we must choose one or the other.

The path we as a class have taken has led to CBA. The decision to go this route instead of another might have been well-considered or chosen on a whim. At the time, this choice may not have seemed important. Look around. See how far we have travelled. Look at the familiar faces and see how they have changed in four years. We are now the product of all our actions during our CBA attendance. The choices available to us now, are related to the initial decision to come to CBA.

Friendships, experiences, knowledge, and spirituality have been gained. Before us lies another path. Colleges, jobs, cities, families, etc. stretch out before us. Our abilities and ambitions have grown because we attended CBA.

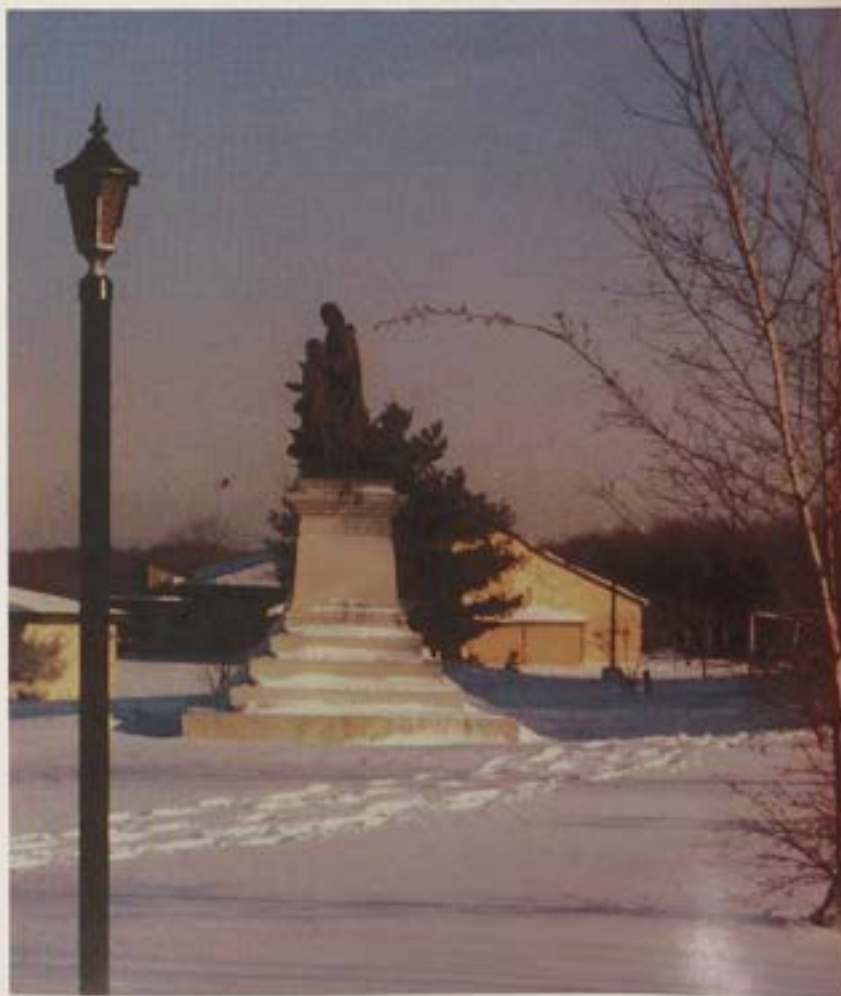

We did not travel this path alone. We had companions to share our hardships and joys encountered on the journey. Now as we go our separate ways, we must see how all these relationships, all these experiences, are unique because of this common choice of CBA.

Was this path the better one? The one less travelled? That the trip has changed us is all we can know for sure. This path led not through trees and grass, but toward greater knowledge of people, of academics, and of God. It has been both a physical and spiritual venture into life. Experiences at CBA have shaped our lives. We have been prepared, strengthened, enlightened in ways that will help to determine our future.

Two roads diverged in a wood, and we chose the one less travelled by. At the time, one didn't seem so different for others has passed those ways before us. We walked on with commitment to a destination only vaguely sensed, but knowing we would have to finish the journey we started. Now, four years later, we stand at another path that diverges in the woods. We can look behind and ahead. Behind us, the trail of our last decision, before us, another. And Christian Brothers Academy has made all the difference.

Faculty

1.9.9.1Y

Those who teach are, like Saint John the Baptist, only God's voice. The word itself that makes God known to those they teach comes from God; it is God who speaks in teachers when they explain God and speak of God.

Saint Peter says, "If anyone of you speaks, let it always be clear that God is speaking by your mouth." Do not be satisfied, then, to read and learn from others what you must teach. Pray to God to impress his truth so firmly in your mind that you will always consider yourself as the minister of God and the dispenser of his mysteries.

Saint Paul says we must support one another. Pay attention to this word "support." It shows we have to suffer from one another. This is why in another place, he says, "Bear each other's burdens." Each of us has our own burden, but as a rule we don't carry our own; others do and must put up with us. If we want peace we must gladly carry each other's burdens.

This past December the C.B.A. community marked the passing of Mr. James J. McGuire, a longtime member of our maintenance staff. Jim was often seen around the halls fixing lockers, taking care of orders for supplies, and sharing his great wit with all those he met. He was very kind and considerate and would do anything in the world for anyone. In the words of his fellow workers, Jim was "the best." May the Lord grant him the eternal peace he so richly deserves. We will miss him.

Student Council

This year's council feels lucky that we have been allowed to work with the student body on many projects. During this time, we attempted to use the input of our fellow students in our decision making process. We believe we accomplished this. It has been very helpful for the Council to incorporate the valuable advice of our advisors Mr. Santanello and Mr. Higgins.

The Student Council would like to extend its gratitude to everyone who helped us during this past year. We want to include the people who helped us with: Field Day, the dances, the semi-formal, as well as the everyday dealings of the council. Thanks for a great year.

Go Club

The ancient game of Go which originated in China and rapidly spread through the Orient is the oldest game in the world. The game of Go is a tremendous test of one's ability to evaluate complicated situations, think and reason his way through difficult problems with careful and precise planning, and to test one's ability to use both common sense and logic.

Currently, the Go Club of Christian Brothers Academy, administrated by Mr. Steven Smith, is among the top five Go clubs in the nation. In its sixth year at CBA, the Go Club has two learned players, Shreek Krishna and John Costello, who have achieved national amateur ranking by the Amateur Go Association by placing both first and second in a recent tournament, the Eastern Championships, during the summer. The CBA Go Club also has other promising players for the years to come and hopes to become even stronger as time goes on.

National Honor Society

When a student is admitted into the St. de LaSalle chapter of the National Honor Society, he has consistently demonstrated a strength in character through his achievements as a leader of his peers, as a scholar, and as a young man serving his community.

Membership in the National Honor Society carries responsibility as well as prestige. One has an obligation to the Society as one of its members, and to the community around him that he represents. A student is expected to maintain the high standards that merited his selection.

Guru-Peer Ministry

The course "GURU / The Dynamics of Peer Ministry" challenges the freshman class morally, socially, and spiritually, helping them to grow positively in these vital aspects of their lives. The GURU program attains these aims through weekly meetings of small groups of freshmen with their assigned GURU minister.

The program fosters personal growth and understanding for each GURU. With its exploration of group dynamics, the GURU program helps each GURU understand the different leadership styles and patterns that emerge in the group experience.

Christian Service Learning

As a part of the curriculum at Christian Brothers Academy, the Christian Service/Learning Course allows students to take part in various community activities. Activities range from helping in hospitals to working in schools. After doing 2 hours of service each week, the students write down in a personal journal their experiences. This personal reflection gives the student the opportunity to grow through his interaction with others.

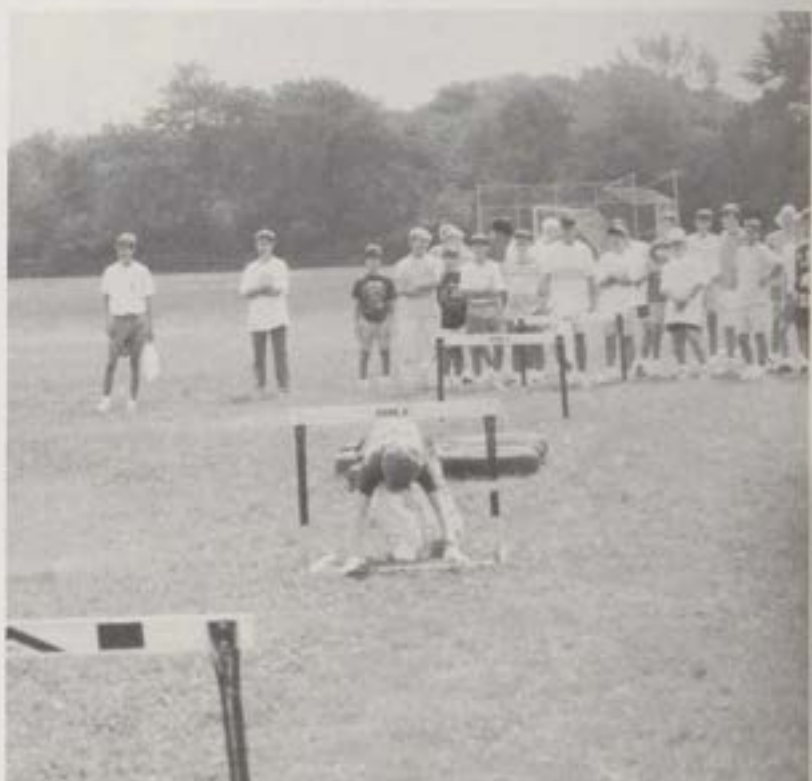

Ms. Tracey is the instructor in this course. Also during the course of the year, numerous speakers come in to share past experiences with the Christian Services classes. Many of the students have such a positive experience through this program that they choose to continue their community service when they complete the course requirement.

Freshmen Orientation

The Class of 1994 entered the C.B.A. community on September 5, 1990. There were many new names and faces in the class. Many of the freshmen were unfamiliar with each other. They needed a way to meet others informally. The freshmen had an opportunity to do this during Freshman Field Day.

The day consisted of competitions between the 21 Guru groups. The competitions were an obstacle course, three-legged race, tug-o-war, and jello races. Before these events, the freshmen met their assigned Guru. They took part in a group session with their Guru and spent the entire day with him.

At the conclusion of the Field Day, a mass was said. During the mass, freshmen set the tone for the year by offering petitions. When the mass ended, this group of motivated freshmen showed their appreciation for the upperclass by clapping loudly. All in all the day was memorable for everyone.

Christmas Club

After weeks of hard work, Br. Patrick and his Christmas Club crew lit up a gorgeous Christmas display. The display, although smaller than years past, still has the same flair.

A manger was the focal point in the Christmas display. Surrounding the manger were, as Br. Patrick called them, Charlie Brown Christmas Trees. The trees were lit up beautifully. Three wise men were also displayed in the scene.

When all of the work was done, the C.B.A. community enjoyed the display. The Christmas Club members had their own celebration in the Brother's Residence. There, they ate pizza and watched Allister Sin's version of The Christmas Carol. Many of the members of the Christmas Club felt that this was the perfect way to begin the Christmas Season.

After a very successful season in 1989, the chess team's 1990-1991 season proved to be even more so. With returning players such as Alex Gerosolina, Gary Shoup, Gene Warzecha, George Veitengruber, and Antonio Rincon, the team has mounted victory after victory in search for yet another A North championship. During the Christmas holiday, the team participated in the Elks Tournament where they placed 3rd out of 25 teams. They are taking their impressive record to date into the State Championship.

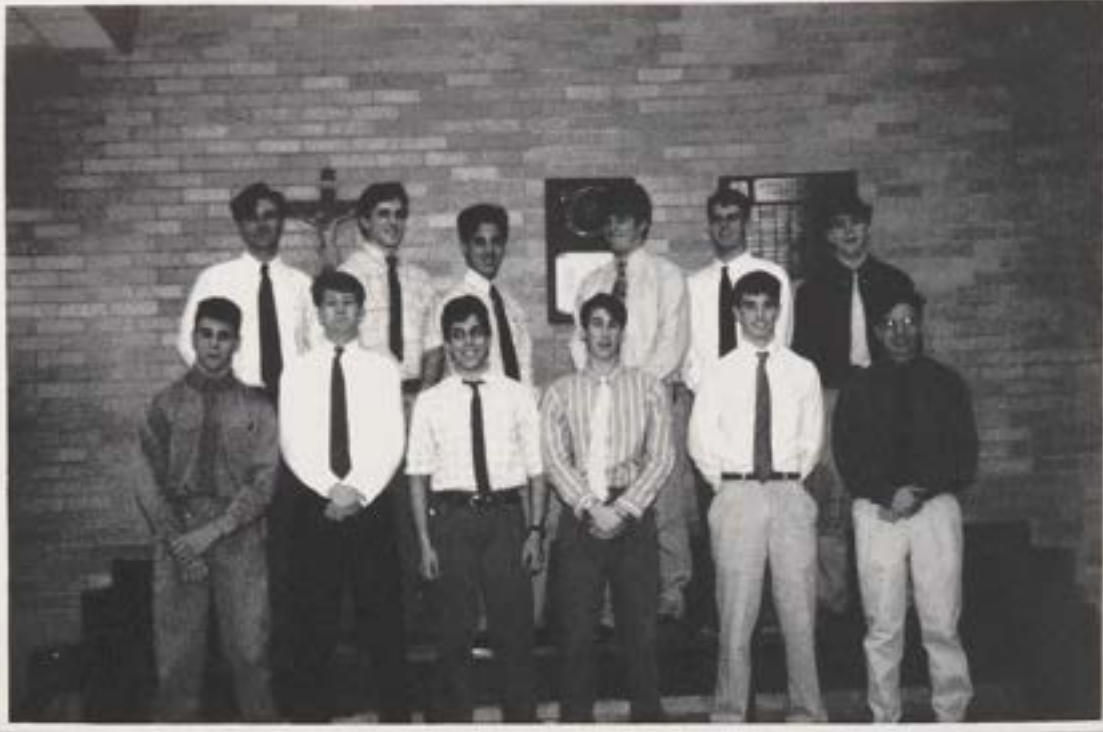

The "B" team enjoyed a good season as well. They gained experience after every match they played. This team will be called on to step up next year and maintain our position as one of the better teams in the Shore Conference.

The C.B.A. experience is unique in that the students are encouraged to take part in religious activities outside of the regular curriculum. These opportunities are evident in the morning mass which is celebrated each day in the chapel. The chaplain Father John Folchetti, says mass, while student Eucharistic Ministers and Lectors perform other necessary functions during the mass. Throughout the school day, many students also utilize the chapel for prayerful reflection.

The C.B.A. community celebrates mass together during specific times in the year. These masses are very special since they bring the entire community together as one congregation. This prayerful experience at mass allows each student to feel a special closeness to one another. A closeness that fosters a bond between each and every person at C.B.A.

In addition to mass, a student is able to receive the sacraments during the morning. All in all, these religious activities mold all of the C.B.A. students into fine young Christian gentlemen.

Wilderness Awareness

Whereas most schools have a student-organized 'environmental action club', CBA is fortunate enough to have a club that offers even more than recycling projects and lectures on global-warming. The Wilderness Club, founded by Mr. Young, is the only environmental education program for high school students that offers intense studies in natural history, tracking, ornithology, botany, Native American culture and other areas of interest in nature studies.

Students are given the opportunity to go on camping trips and attend workshops in the Pine Barrens and other local wilderness areas. During the holidays, the Club ventures into remote wilderness areas such as Shenandoah National Forest, the Great Smoky Mountains, the wild backcountry of Maine and the mountains of West Virginia.

Social Awareness

The Social Awareness Council was begun by students concerned with social issues facing our world today. It has changed much since the first meeting in 1988, and continues to change as new ideas and thoughts flourish and grow. The goal of the Council is to prepare members for the future. It is the Council's hope that in the future, its members, when holding positions of influence in our society, will make responsible decisions with the knowledge and understanding of how fragile and precious peace and justice are and how interdependent humanity is with the environment around it.

Mock Trial

After last year's unprecedented second place performance in Monmouth County, the Academy's Mock Trial Team, led by moderator Mr. Mark Fleming, is ready, willing, and able to take the number one position. Armed with four dedicated attorney advisors, the team has been well prepared to try and win the case of "State vs. Diane Lynch".

The case centers around the death of a "cocaine baby" (Baby Lynch). The job of the attorneys this year is to either prosecute or defend the mother, Diane Lynch, in this interesting case of infanticide.

Debate

Starting its second year of formal competition, the O.F.S. exploded off the line in the fall by winning an unprecedented 4th place in the annual Shadow Lawn Forensics competition at Monmouth College. Among the shining finalists were first place winner Chris Williams, and second place winner Bob "Shicepasse" Schiapacasse, who also served as President of the League for three years before his resignation.

This amazingly successful organization was started by and run by Brother Leo Kirby. Through his energetic labor and skilled coaching, he was able to create a strong forensics team from scratch.

Retreats

As a young Christian gentleman progresses in his education at CBA, he is given a once a year opportunity to help him get closer to himself as a growing young man, and closer to God. These opportunities are known as CBA Retreats.

The Sophomore Retreat theme is Wilderness Awareness where the students get closer to the earth and God through meditation, relaxation, and some fun. Some elected upperclassmen aid the leader on these retreats.

The Junior Retreat program consists of a one day retreat at a local parish with priests from a parish in Jamaica, N.Y. Small group activities and confessions are just some of the day's offerings.

The Senior Retreat is also run by the same priests as the Junior retreat for an extended day of setting goals, playing games, and getting to know those classmates you never really knew. The students get a chance to hear the courageous stories of an ex-alcoholic and an ex-drug user.

The retreats are a break from the ordinary hectic CBA routine and often instill hope, vision and guidance to students.

Cycling Club

The Academy Cycling Club, formed in 1989, is currently run by seniors Damian Polgar and Stan Balmer. Meetings are held once a week after school. Meeting topics include bike maintenance, riding technique, training, and racing skills. Weekly rides are held on Saturday or Sunday mornings, and cater to each riders ability. This year, the Academy Club Racing Team will represent the school in various races through New Jersey. The racing team is supported by local business sponsorships. Even though the team only entered four races last year, it fared exceptionally well. Junior Jim Juster won the 15-17 year old division of the tour of Red Bank Cycling Classic. Freshman Ken Juster placed second in the 13-14 year old division. Junior Rich Carpiano took second at the Tour of Red Bank, 15-17 division, and twelfth in the Nescafe Cycling Classic in Freehold.

This year, the team will ride in far more races than last year. In fact, more than eight races are intended to be entered by team members, not to mention the numerous biathalons and triathalons held around the shore area.

The team has been a real force in the Shore League, and is presently in strong contention for the State and Catholic League titles. Individually, Tom Carmichael scored second in the prestigious William Patterson calculus contest. Tom Carmichael, Ken Klapper, Tim Brennan, and Mike Bindas are amongst the top in the shore. Juniors Chris Harbison, Charles Nachman, Bryan Eleazar, and Drew Grabowski are leading the JV's to a strong showing in the Catholic League. As 1991 comes to a close, the seniors are preparing to finish strong in the shore, and the New York All-Star meet in April. All in all, it has been another strong year for Brother Christian's math team superstars.

The Academy Torch

The Academy Torch, CBA's own newspaper, is a publication which explores both local and world events. Writing for The Academy Torch allows students to develop a positive attitude toward journalism. Equally important the Torch serves as a forum, open for the expression of contrasting viewpoints of Academy students.

Under the direction of moderator Mr. Hugh McKenna, the Torch is published approximately four to five times per year. The Academy Torch, consists of an editorial staff, and a reporting staff. The Editor-in-Chief for the 1990-91 Academy Torch is Matt Kawas. The Managing Editor is Chris Cifarelli. The Sports Editor is Tim Brennan, Opinions Editor is Mike Bindas, the News Editor is Alex Cano and the Layout Editor is Nick DeFranco.

The Arister

The ARISTER is CBA's annual literary journal. The title is derived from the word "Ar-ete," which is the Greek word for excellence. All students are encouraged, threatened, and harassed through the annual mass publicity campaign to submit their original poetry, prose, artwork, and photography. Then the staff avidly and carefully selects submissions and prepares them for publication. The goal of the ARISTER is to convey quality art which in the immortal words of Socrates "... the only thing worth expressing is the unexpressible."

La fondation du Club de français l'année dernière à CBA permet à ses vingt-cinq membres enthousiastes l'occasion de perfectionner leur français et d'apprécier les cultures francophones. Le Club a offert une variété d'activités qui comprend des films français, un jeu de jeopardy, un jeu de trivial pursuit contre Freehold Boro High School, des cantiques de Noël et un débat de la guerre du Golfe.

L'intérêt élevé des participants à ces réunions soulignent le désir de ces élèves de pratiquer leur français oral. Pour ceux qui veulent écrire en français, le Club a publié un journal français intitulé "Le Pigeon Voyageur". Le Club de français espère toujours jouer un rôle important dans l'enseignement du français à CBA.

Ver Hoven, el Club sirve como un lugar de reuniones para un gran grupo de alumnos de español. Durante el año sus miembros tienen la oportunidad de ver películas hispanas y saborear varios tipos de comida hispana. En cada reunión mensual, los miembros pueden practicar y mejorar su pronunciación. Con el apoyo de los alumnos, el Club espera que su éxito continúe por muchos años.

Yearbook

Being on the yearbook staff requires both artistic skills and literary skills, as well as creativity. If a person has the above skills, he still needs one more skill to work on the yearbook. That skill is time management. Throughout the year, a yearbook editor is expected to meet numerous deadlines. Each passing deadline marks a step towards the completion of the yearbook, which is the ultimate goal of this activity.

The staff of editors is led by the Editor-in-Chief, Daniel J. Potoczniak, and the advisor, Mr. Walter Hrycenko. However, they not only lead the editors, but also work with them. This enables the yearbook workers to develop, yet another skill, teamwork. Teamwork inspires this crew to complete the 1991 Pegasus, a yearbook which will be cherished by the entire community at Christian Brothers Academy for years to come.

Fathers' Club

The Fathers' Club of Christian Brothers Academy was founded for two purposes: to create a spirit of comradeship among the alumni, fathers, and friends of C.B.A., and to be of assistance to the Academy. They hold regular meetings to increase interest in the Academy and its academic standing in the community. This organization sponsors the annual Cadillac raffle and supports the Centur Club Drive. A Father and Son Communion Breakfast brings the members and their sons into close union with the religious dimension of C.B.A. Each year the Fathers' Club organizes a variety of functions ranging from social activities through a maintenance committee. In addition, the men of the Fathers' Club help out with supervision at many athletic events and other functions.

Women's Guild

The Women's Guild is an organization of mothers and friends of C.B.A. The Guild was formed in 1975 to assist in the present and future success of the Academy. This is accomplished by aiding in school activities and services as requested by the school, helping financially in whatever way the School Administration considers desirable to supplement school funds, uniting the members in the closest bonds of good fellowship and promoting community interest in C.B.A. The financial goals are achieved by sponsoring an Annual Luncheon and Fashion Show in October, and an Art Show in February. Services rendered by Guild volunteers consist of staffing the Nurse's Office, publishing the Newsletter, providing chaperones for school dances and hosting and assisting at several in-school socials and academic receptions.

It was a year of highs and lows that ended with a high note for Coach Tom Heath's Harriers. The Colts cruised through its dual meets, extending their streak to 167 straight wins. (Last defeat was in 1973!) C.B.A. also placed first in its first four invitationals, beating the #1 in the state Paul VI at the Shore Coaches Invitational. The Colts' first loss came to archrival Paul VI at the Eastern States Championship at Van Cortlandt Park in New York. That didn't stop C.B.A. at the shore, however, where they won the Monmouth County Championships, and their ninth straight Shore Conference title. The Colts' race at the New Jersey Catholic Track Conference was their 11th win in the last 12 years with the fourth fastest team average in state history at the invitational.

The Colts seemed to be ready to add a Parochial "A" title to their collection, but were defeated for the third straight year by Paul VI once again. This devastating loss made Paul VI the big favorite to repeat at the All-Group State Championship, but after the gun fired and the smoke cleared, Heath's Harriers won a record fifth All-Group State title. C.B.A. became the first team in state history to lose in the states, but win the All-Groups. After it was all said and done, Christian Brothers Academy ended up the season as the best cross country team in New Jersey.

The 1990 Colts will be remembered for their ability to face adversity, and their true dedication. The season was filled with high and low points, but no matter how good or how bad, the Colts stuck together. Senior co-captains Jimmy Lennon, with his aggressive play, and Brad Dull with his aggressive attitude, helped keep the team together through much adversity. Seniors Ralph Troisi, Brian Peduto, John Zappala, Mike Giblin, and Craig Bell, although small in number were great in spirit and intensity. Steve McKee led the offense, while Marc Bala impressed many with an outstanding job of goaltending. The Colts would like to thank our always loyal fans for their support. The 1990 Colts was a team that fought through many hardships with the proud attitude of "Business as Usual."

Will the Christian Brothers Academy Basketball Team remain at summit of Basketball competition with the graduation of their amazing starter? This was the question asked by the masses this season. The question was soon answered. It wasn't easy but the optimistic Colts worked ardently and emerged victorious in their usual spectacular style and in new challenges. One of the new challenges was the Christmas Tournament in Ocala, Florida. The competition in Florida was new but the team left Florida with the status "champions"; placing first in the tournament. Possessing tremendous skill, spirit and confidence the Colts are looking for their 8th A North Championship in 9 years. Other goals for the season include playing in the Shore Conference Finals for the 7th time in 9 seasons. Also a return to the South Jersey finals and possibly a premier appearance in the Tournament of Champions are in view for the Colts.

The 1990-91 Colt wrestling team was the culmination of several years of development. Seldom recognized as one of C.B.A.'s premier sports, head coach George Speidel and assistants Joe Vella and John Lombardi changed all this. Leading a talented squad heavily manned with veterans, the team was able to accomplish successes unheard of in recent years. Opening the season with 4th place finish at the state champion St. Benedicts Gray Bee Tournament, they went on to compete in the tough A north division — and won the first two C.B.A. wrestling A north victories ever. The wrestlers competed in the Holmdel Christmas tournament — taking 3rd place overall with Chris Vella and Hubert Cutolo winning championships.

Team captains Chris Vella, Jim Speidel, and Joe Mastroia helped the team strive for a "Team" concept; this was instrumental in their success. The Colts will compete for the first time ever this year in the NJSIAA Parochial A state tournament, going in as the first seed. The Colts will finish the phenomenal 90-91 season with a strong District 22 performance, looking for several individual champions and a possible team title.

The 1990-91 Colt Hockey team anticipated a year of success. The Colts are hopeful in pursuit of a state championship in what could be one of their best seasons ever. Although the team has lost some key players, they have succeeded in maintaining a winning record under the leadership of their captains, Seniors Jim Bruno and Dan Shaloo, and junior Dave Weisman. The Colts boast two experienced lines. Some of the important key players on this year's team include Seniors Mike Pierce and Pete Chalfin, Juniors Ron Prieto, Dave Nicholson, Tim Shaheen, and Sophomore Bill McCormack. The addition of Junior Andrew Jaffe to the Colts' team is an asset to its already powerful offense. The determined Colts hope to rise above preseason expectations and capture the state crown and bring home the Gordon Cup.

The 1990-1991 CBA Swim team has come as a surprise to the Shore Conference. The first year team, consisting of 35 swimmers, has established itself as one of the dominant teams within the Shore Conference. Under the watchful eye of their coach, Mr. Mike Sullivan, the team has devoted long hours of practices, and demonstrated their enthusiasm which has led to their success. A key victory came early in the season with the 100-83 win over Tom River East. CBA's swim team is here to stay!

Bowling

Despite a slow start, the Christian Brothers Academy bowling team finished the season very strongly. The Colts successfully rebuilt their squad with returning star Joe Santanello, and newcomers Dave Lelesi, Ken Frederick, Mike Muniz. The Colts bowling crew was able to handle their opponents without much difficulty, and they expect to get the same results next season.

This season proved to be one of the most outstanding bowling campaigns in school history, and led by the expertise of Brother Cyril O'Neill. Look for the Colts to be on top of the Shore Conference standings next season.

Get in there!

Golf

Christopher Guglielmo, Jay Ingram, Adam Edwards

Jay concentrates on the winning putt.

Going, going, gone!

Confronted with the loss of three seniors, Coach Brother Andrew will be looking to rebuild the golf team. The team will be led by returning lettermen, senior Chris Guglielmo and sophomore Jay Ingram. With strong tournament performances over the summer Jay Ingram looks to play a pivotal role in this year's program. Brother Andrew hopes his young golfers will perform well and strive to capture both the shore and state titles.

Baseball

Timmy Brennan looking fierce.

Leo Decker with the snag.

When spring rolls around, the CBA Colts Baseball team will be looking to top an excellent 1990 campaign. With 8 varsity lettermen returning, Coach Kenney, a seventeen year veteran, has high expectations coming into the 1991 season.

The Colt's strong point is their pitching staff. Both Keith McGee and Tim Brennan, after having successful junior seasons, will bring some experience to the mound. Also, pitcher Chris Fitzpatrick will continue to develop and complement McGee and Brennan.

Chris Rittweger will strengthen the Colt attack with his experience behind the plate. Mike and Pete McTighe will provide some strong defense up the middle and Leo Decker will lead the infield at first base.

Coach Kenney is also looking for juniors Andy Wojcik and Aaron Pasko to stabilize the Colt attack.

McTighe makes the stop.

Keith winding up.

Tennis

The Colts Tennis Team came out strong and showed another impressive year in 1990 with a team led by John Costanzo, Joe Clemente, Brian Phoebus, John Ingram, David Weisman, Rick Keirnam, and Chris Moran. The net men of C.B.A. produced a state championship for the school and had a 24-1 record with its only loss coming to East Brunswick during a non-conference matchup.

The Colts should again be a strong contender for the state championship title in 1991 with some tough underclassmen to fill in the vacancies left by the graduating Seniors.

RIGHT: Br. Pat still has the touch. BOTTOM: You're not gettin' away from me this time!

The extensive intramural program that is offered at CBA gives all those students who don't make the schools interscholastic teams, the opportunity to show off their skills. The intramural program is participated in by almost 75% of the student body. During the fall, football, soccer, and basketball dominate the intramural scene. In the winter, bowling and winter football take over.

When spring finally rolls around, the athletes give their best shot at softball or volleyball. The CBA intramural program prides itself on its competitive atmosphere and the wide variety of sports. All in all, the CBA community is encouraged by the participation and the success of the intramural program. The credit for this goes to the athletes, but more importantly, the moderators.

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

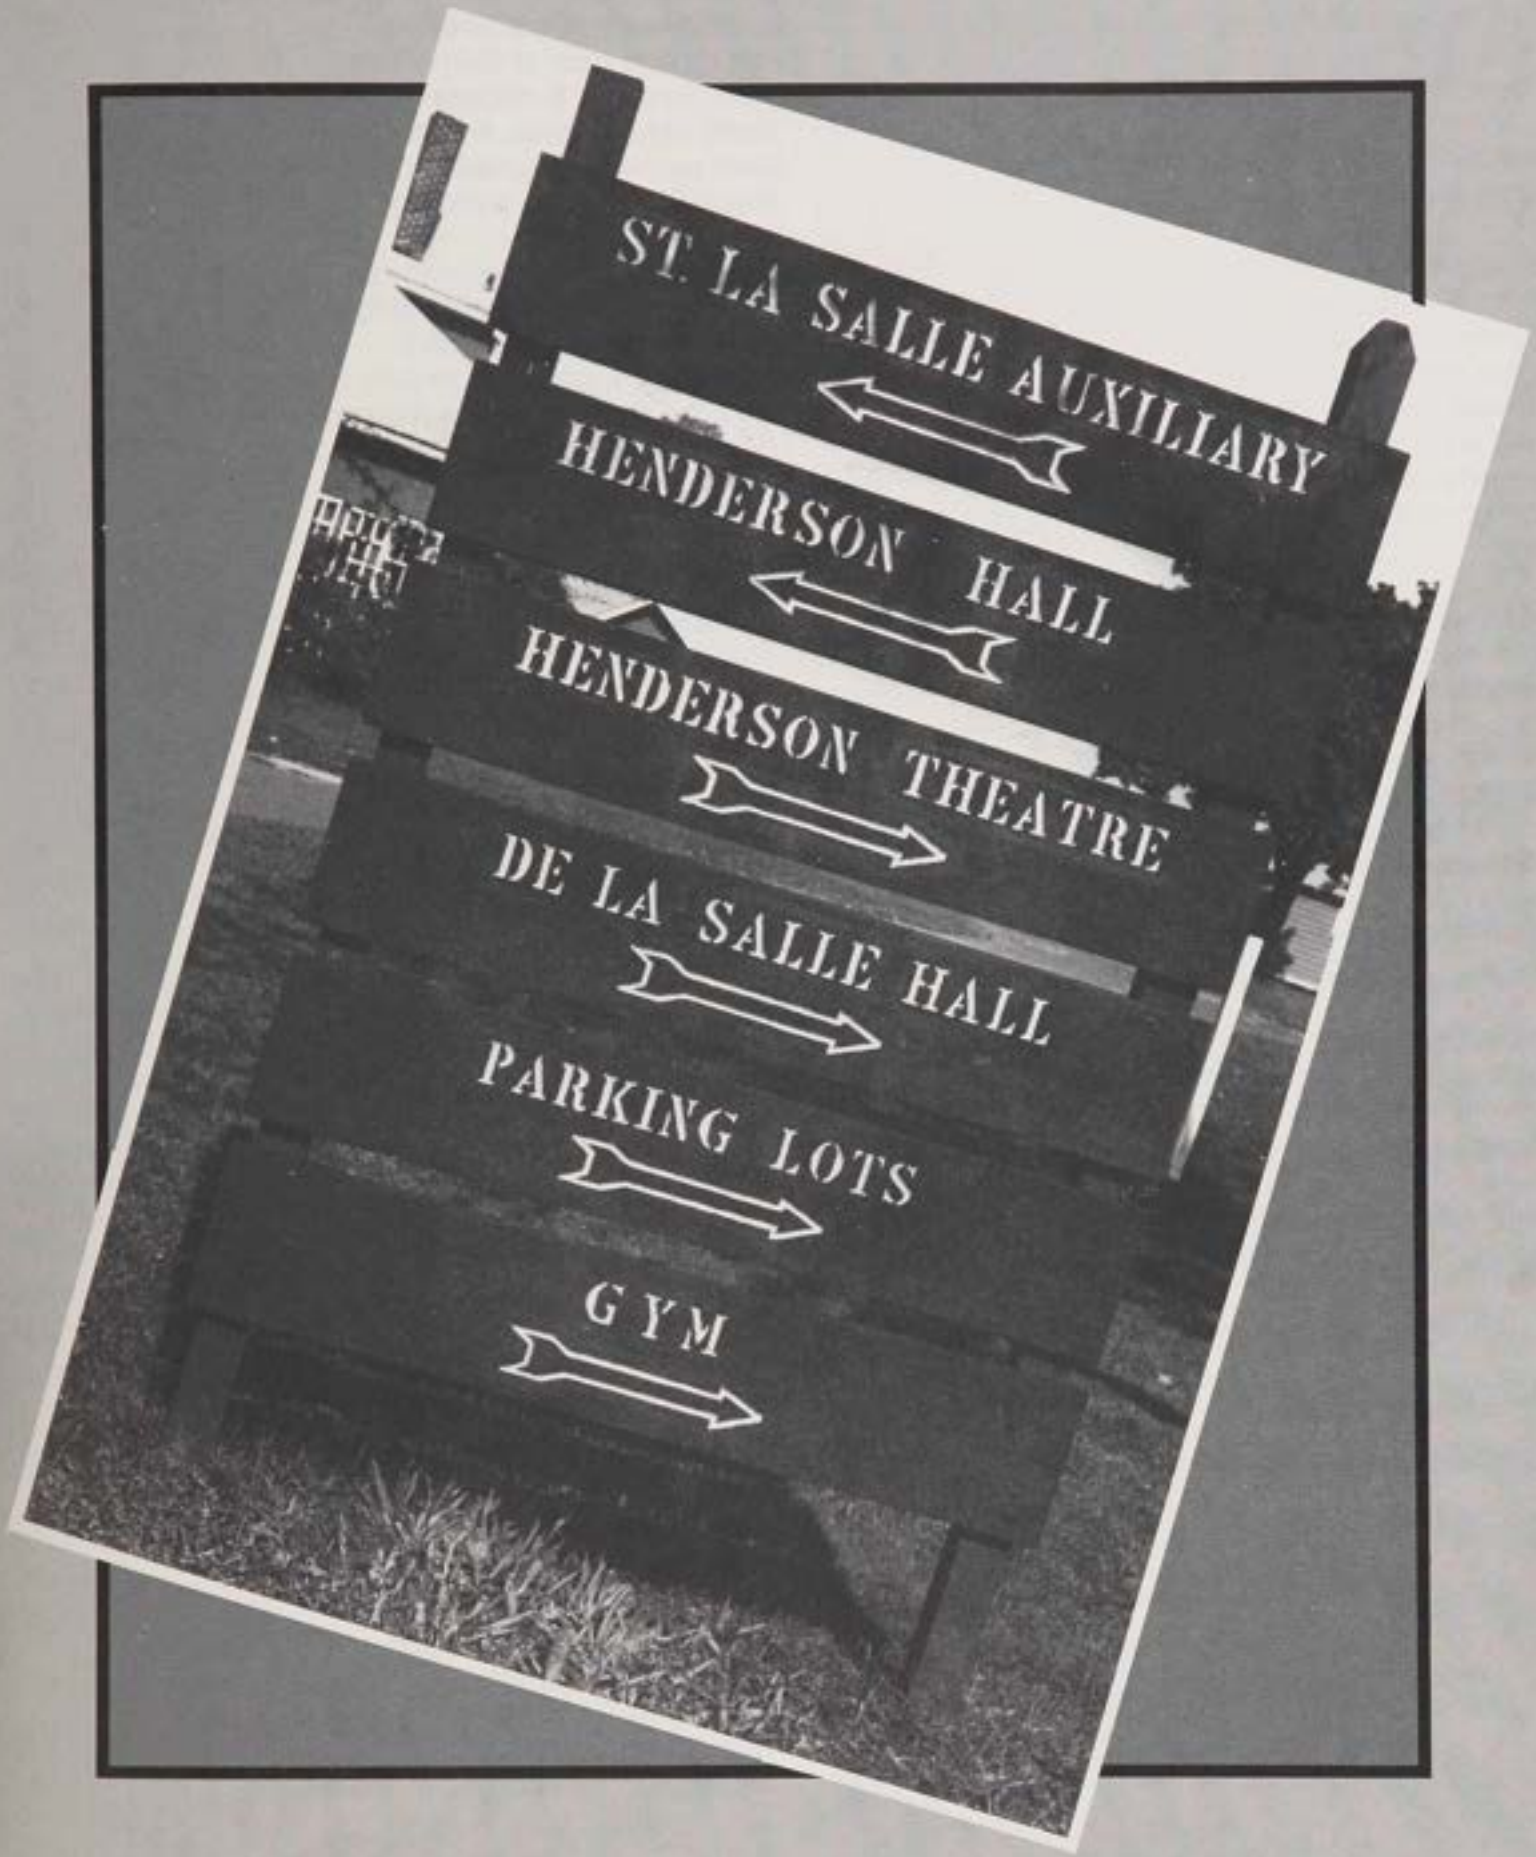

TWO roads diverged in a yellow
wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveller, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;
Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better
claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted
wear;
Though as for that the passing tere
Has worn them really about the same,
And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and
I—
I took the one less travelled by,
And that has made all the difference.

Robert Frost

In a distant land, atop Mount Delmar,
Dwelted the gods.
In a pantheon of gray marbled splendor
Enscorced in a field of lush greenery
they toiled to collect
Memories of the surrounding world.
The memories, the images
Of things past, they inscribed in this tome.
The being spent hours by sunlight
And by moonbeam in the compilation;
For their labors, I thank them.

The messenger of the gods,
Putting Hermès to shame,
Is our representative Dave Schofield.
Delivering our work to the press,
He made it seen among men.
Quick to wit, slow to anger,
He moved many dead-lines.
I thank him for myself, and on the part
Of the staff

Mr. Walter Hrycenko, leader and advisor
To us, is the volition
Behind the workers. Inspired by Mnemosyne,
The goddess of memory,
His goal was to bring
The fire of reminiscence to humans.
What Schofield lacked in lenience,
Hrycenko compensated with determination.
The staff and I offer to him
A sacrifice of our burnt time and effort
In hopes of his satisfaction.

A quotidien task awaited
Brian Betz and John Costello at the pantheon.
By the grace of Apollo,
Understanding of the value of game and sport
Is bestowed to them. They have made it
Immortal in print, in every aspect,
From cross-country to baseball.

A true god in his dedication, Brian leaves us
With his legend to be passed on to John.
Thank -you both for your work.

Christopher Cifarelli and Tom Adams,
Embodiments of the foresight
And organization of Epimetheus.
Chris' patience & responsibility, and
Tom's determination & aggressiveness
Have painted the tableau of underclassmen.
Thank-you for your efforts on the section.

As Thamûs made known the passing of Pan,
Chris Fitzpatrick and John Hogan
Print the passing of Seniors
From CBA. Length and tedium
Mark the Senior and Directory compilation,
Perseverance has marked their editors.
Chris' help is seen in other areas
Of the book as well,
Dedication describes him best.
Thanks to both of you,
The largest part of the book is yours.

Marc Bala peeked into Pandora's Box,
And the Activities section
Leapt out.
He helped where help was needed,
Regardless of time or place. To give thanks
Where it is due, is to give it
To Marc and his reliability.
Thank-you for all the hours of work.

Dionysus' creativity steps into our book
Through the portals of Stephen Shaheen,
David Rubin, and Garry Koch (Koch . . . Dionysian?)
Page one, of trees, rocks, and pathways,
Is by Steve, artiste suprême.
His picture articulates
Its own words of beauty.
David, rhetorician extraordinaire,
Walked along a path less travelled by,
And related it through his writing
Of the theme and other passages.
Captions were created by Garry Koch,
Humor with Aristotelian flare.
To all of you, thank-you
For adding yourselves to the book.

To the class of '91,
As we leave our Academy,
With the termination of a part of our education,
That will cradle us through life,
(Until the bow breaks,)
I wish you happiness
And the best of what you're looking for.
