Theme

C.B.A. has given us the gift of a Christian Education in the Lasallian tradition. It is up to us to share that gift with others in our future endeavors.

Student Life

A student at C.B.A. is more than his academic transcript. Each person has his unique talents to share with others whether they are guiding young freshmen or serving the community.

Frosh

The class of 1994 has tried to set an example for the freshmen as the future of C.B.A., so that they will continue the traditions of the Academy.

28

Faculty

The faculty's dedicated guidance has been invaluable in our formation as Christian gentlemen, as scholars, and as servants to others in our communities.

Sophomores

They are now an integral part of the C.B.A. community. Their presence, whether in academics, activities, or the sports program has made our community richer.

64

Activities

78

Extracurricular activities help each student develop his individual interests. Whether writing for a publication or performing on the stage, students can be found sharing their talents with the community.

Juniors

98

The class of 1994 challenges the juniors to become models of the Lasallian tradition for the Academy community.

Sports

110

C.B.A. continues to produce some of the best interscholastic teams in the state. Still, the athletes know that the teamwork and sportsmanship that they learn will help them in any field they pursue.

Seniors

144

The time has come when we must decide on our future plans. Senior year provides us the opportunity to begin reflecting on the gifts C.B.A. has shared with us and how the C.B.A. community has affected our lives.

Directory

178

We will never forget the friendships that we have developed over the years at the Academy. Each person has shared his unique gifts with all of us and has contributed to the community in his own way.

“We are many parts, we are all one body, and the gifts we have we are given to share.”

—Marty Haugen

We, the Class of 1994, were brought together four years ago to begin our legacy in the tradition of Christian Brothers Academy. From many diverse backgrounds we came together on that September day in 1990. Our lives have changed tremendously since then, but we will always remember our beginnings.

We now look ahead to college, knowing that our experience at C.B.A. has helped prepare us for the challenges that lie ahead. Before we jump forward and leave this special place, we must look back and see what made it special. Over the last four years we have grown together to form a community made meaningful by the gifts and talents we have all shared. We have left our mark in the history of C.B.A. as a class which excelled in every aspect of Academy life. Academically, we have strived to meet the rigors of a challenging curriculum.

We will bring the Academy tradition to some of the finest colleges in America. We, as a class, have also showed tremendous ability on the athletic fields. Whether it be state championships or intramural titles, we have shown a great spirit of competition and pride in the athletic arena.

In our own way, we have each given or shared a special talent in service to the C.B.A. community. Through classes like Guru-Peer Ministry and Christian Service/Learning, we have served our school and local community by acting upon our beliefs as Christians. The shaping of our Christian attitude has been one of the most important features of our education. Our teachers have strived to fill the mind and heart of every student with the values and attitudes of John Baptist de La Salle.

We, the class of 1994, leave our legacy in the talents we share as one community. We made the memories. In these memories we will always be a part of the community of Christian Brothers Academy.

The last rays of light glimmer off Spring Lake as the limos begin to pull up at the Warren Hotel. Elegantly dressed men and women exit these cars and enter the hotel. As they arrive, they are greeted by Miss Trank, who is responsible for the entire night's festivities. Soon, they are escorted into the dining room by their teachers, who have agreed to be chaperones for this evening. As they enter the dining room they are entertained by their chosen band, "Decades." For the remainder of the evening, this band continues to perform beyond our expectations. For many students the prom's theme, These Are Days by 10,000 Maniacs, is played all too soon for it signifies the end of the night, but the memories of this evening will last forever.

Guru Peer Ministry

The G.U.R.U.-Peer Ministry program began before school started in early September at the Kateri Retreat Center in Marlboro. The two day workshop brought the 24 Gurus together with Dr. Koch and Father Farrell to prepare for the year long experience.

In its fifteenth year, the Guru program serves to help acclimate the freshmen in their difficult transition from junior high to C.B.A. Gurus seek to provide a safe place for the expression of concerns and opinions. The Gurus, themselves, pursue a greater self-awareness through reflection on experience. The ultimate objective is to form community among the 24 Gurus and within the freshmen groups. The influence of the Guru program is strongly felt as a key element in the LaSallian community at C.B.A.

Christian Service-Learning

The main focus in the Christian Service-Learning course is volunteer work. This class recognizes the importance of assisting the community. Each student is required to spend at least two hours each week volunteering their time and effort by working in hospitals, working at latchkey, tutoring homeless children, teaching CCD classes, building homes, and teaching young children how to swim. Along with his service work, a student is expected to write about his experiences in a journal. This helps the student develop an understanding of his relationship with God and with others. In the third marking period, students give a presentation about their service work to the class. The best reports are then given to underclassmen to teach them the importance of volunteer work.

Religious activities give C.B.A. students an opportunity to develop their faith. The entire community celebrates the liturgy together a few times each year. There is also a Mass in the the school chapel every morning before school. Students are encouraged to take an active part in the liturgy as lectors, musicians, servers, and eucharistic ministers. Each year the students go on a retreat to increase their spiritual awareness by taking a break from the rigors of the curriculum. This year Father Folchetti organized a charity drive before Christmas. Each homeroom adopted a child at St. John of God for exceptional children and raised money to buy Christmas presents.

Clifford Dainty

Although faced with impending death, Cliff Dainty chose to live in hope — his dream to come to CBA — his effort everyday to do his best — his concern for the future. This community, especially the freshman class, was blessed through Cliff with the opportunity to witness his faith in action. We should all be filled with hope.

"You should not doubt that God has bestowed a great gift on you in calling you to teach the young, to announce the Gospel to them, and to bring them up in a religious spirit. But this being so, God expects you to fulfill your duty with ardent zeal for the salvation of your pupils."

In Recognition of 30 Years of Service at CBA

In his usual quiet, unassuming, and almost carefree way, Mr. John O'Shea marks his thirtieth year as a member of the faculty of Christian Brothers Academy. Those thirty years comprise virtually the entire history of CBA, and in so many ways Mr. O'Shea has been an integral part of the growth in reputation and status of the Academy.

A graduate of the College of Holy Cross, Mr. O'Shea began his CBA career as a Language Arts and French teacher. He also taught Latin for many years, before finally settling in the mathematics department in the early 1980's. For a long time he taught Algebra I, and only recently has returned to including Geometry and Algebra II in his schedule. He also enjoyed a brief return to the classical language several years ago.

Mr. O'Shea made his mark in the sports pages as the successful coach of the varsity tennis team. Under his tutelage CBA won 242 matches, and 6 parochial "A" state titles and 2 over-all state titles. His methodical and patient instruction brought CBA to dominance in the state of New Jersey. Students at the Navesink Country Club continue to benefit from his tennis expertise, as he directs their tennis school. Mr. O'Shea and his wife Patricia, are the parents of three daughters, each of whom made their marks in the academic and athletic worlds of Rumson-Fair Haven Regional High School, as well as their respective colleges. He is now seen sporting a Villanova Wildcats hat, as his youngest daughter is a first year student there, and a member of their tennis team. Besides playing and teaching tennis, Mr. O'Shea enjoys casting a line and pulling in blues, as well as frequent trips to Florida, and watching as many Villanova games as possible.

His patience in teaching, pleasant demeanor, and respect for his students, are those qualities which are witnessed through longevity as a member of the CBA community. We congratulate him on his milestone, and hope for his continued health, success, and positive presence, as a member of the faculty.

Mr. John M. O'Shea

Brother Thomas Wilkinson, F.S.C.

Guidance Department Chair
Junior Guidance Counselor

In Recognition of 50 Years as a Christian Brother and Distinguished LaSallian Educator

After a ten year hiatus, Brother C. Thomas Wilkinson returned to the Christian Brothers Academy community in 1988, and immediately assumed a strong leadership role in the Guidance Office. His seemingly tireless dedication to the students with whom he works has gained quick notoriety within the community. Brother can be seen each morning scouring the hallways making sure his students have completed their forms or have submitted their applications to college. He sets strict deadlines and insists that the students keep to a schedule and procedures that provides them with the best advantage throughout the college application process. His vast experience and concern for each student works to their advantage as they make those decisions which will affect the future of their lives. Brother gives his time to each student and, as long as the student has his paperwork in order, Brother works with the lower ranked student with the same enthusiasm and concern as with the highest ranked student.

Brother has the deepest respect for the teachers of the school, and clearly respects the time and effort that each teacher spends on behalf of the students. He sends notes to the faculty thanking them for their time with the letters of recommendation, and he encourages the students to recognize their teachers as well. Similarly, Brother is quick with a word of encouragement, praise, condolence, congratulations, as the situation warrants. He shows a genuine interest in the lives and work of the faculty.

In 1992, Brother assumed the position of Director of Guidance. He meets weekly with the Academic Dean to discuss the progress of the students, and he is responsible for overseeing the work of the other members of the department, as well as establishing directives for the direction of the Guidance Office. Brother is widely respected for his professionalism and concern for the continual up-dating of the services. Likewise, he has developed a positive working relationship with the parents of the students, and works closely with them through the application process. For Brother Thomas, the LaSallian community clearly extends to the parents.

Brother C. Thomas Wilkinson is recongnized for the tireless effort he has put forth on the personal and academic development of our student body, as well as a recognition of his collegial and professional presence among his colleagues.

In Recognition of 50 Years as a Christian Brother

Brother Christian Jones, F.S.C. was taught by the Christian Brothers at Bishop Loughlin Memorial High School. Having been so impressed by the Brothers he wanted to become one himself. He also became a Christian Brother because he wanted to share his joy of academics with his students.

Brother Christian received his B.A. and M.A. from Manhattan College. His first teaching assignment was in 1947 at the Sacred Heart School in the Bronx, New York. At this school they didn't have professionals to teach track, so Brother Christian offered to help. During this experience he realized his love for track. While teaching in other assigned schools he became very interested in the Catholic High School Math League, of which he is now the President.

He came to Christian Brothers Academy in 1972. Brother Christian takes part in many aspects of C.B.A. life. Along with being a math teacher, he is also the Associate Principal for Scheduling and Programming. Before the advent of modern technology, Brother had to do all of CBA's scheduling by hand. He also is the founder and director of the CBA Eighth Grade Math Contest every year to interest prospective students in our school. Brother Christian is the coach of both the J.V. and Varsity Math Teams and plays an important role in running the Shore Math League. His teams are perennial powerhouse in the state. When Brother Christian is not concentrating on mathematics, he helps the track team with timing duel meets. After serving as a Chritian Brother for fifty years, Brother Christian has exemplified the discipline of a true LaSallian educator.

Brother Leo Kirby, F.S.C.

Brother Leo Kirby served the Institute of the Christian Brothers of the Schools in many influential leadership positions: Director of the Washington Scholasticate, Provincial-Visitor of the New York District, Assistant Superior General. In 1976 Leo returned to the United States and began his ministry at LaSalle School in Albany visiting the "forgotten alumni"- those in prison. Leo brought to these young men solace, comfort, hope, and mostly his heart and himself. When they returned home, he continued to stay in contact with them and offered them encouraging words as they transitioned to home and back to schools.

In 1988, the osteoporosis that had forced him into a wheelchair led him to De LaSalle Hall. Leo's faith and zeal wouldn't allow him to simply retire so he began a new ministry at CBA. Many of us can remember Leo zipping around the corridors in his motorized wheelchair offering a smile, simple conversation, a show of concern, a gift of candy. He taught the sophomore group guidance classes and worked with the lectors for both morning Mass and school liturgies. He resurrected the forensics program at CBA working with many students during their free periods in the theater lobby and helped in the work of the Pegasus Production Company. It took a stroke in the spring of 1992 to limit his presence at the Academy. Leo continued to strive to overcome his disabilities until his death last July.

Brother Leo lives on in the hearts of those he came in contact with for he truly lived the word of John Baptist de La Salle- "to touch the hearts of your students is the greatest miracle that you can perform and one that God expects of you."

Brother Charles O'Hanlon, F.S.C.

Brother Charles O'Hanlon joined the De La Salle Brothers of the Christian Schools in 1935. After a long career as teacher and principal, he came to CBA in 1973 to serve in the Finance Office.

Brother Charles worked closely with Mrs. Cokelet in organizing and executing the routine needs of the administration, faculty and staff. He made the daily run to the bank, handled the mail and managed the stationery supplies for the school and development office. While he never taught students at the Academy, Brother's most significant contributions have been in his relationship with the parents' associations. He was instrumental in the growth and development of the Fathers' Club. Brother was also called upon to apply his talents to organizing and coordinating the activities of the Century Club, a major fundraising activity at the Academy. In 1991 he was honored by the Century Club with the designation of the "Brother Charles O'Hanlon Circle" giving category.

During the past few years Brother Charles' health began to fail and after celebrating his seventy-fifth birthday he retired to De La Salle Hall. On July 4, Our Lord called him home.

Brother Charles will be remembered for the amiable way he conducted his daily routine. His quiet and friendly demeanor endeared him to many. In a reflection, Brother Anthony Lamb described his tenure as the principal of La Salle Academy as follows:

"He added to community life a graciousness and quiet sense of humor, an influence without pressure, a leadership without tension. Regardless of justified annoyances, harsh words never escaped from Charlie. A humorous needling, a gentle quip, sufficed to express concerns or expectations of others. In his six years at La Salle with us, he never abused his authority, never dominated others, but was able to motivate everyone in a friendly spirit of camaraderie."

Academy Torch

This year, the Academy Torch re-defined the standards of scholastic journalism with its sterling work product. The Torch had always been known for its quarterly four pages of excellent writing; yet Editor-in-Chiefs Dave Lelesi and Brian Miller refused to settle for only this much excellence, instead striving to take the Torch to the next level. It began to use the corps of splendid writers to tackle important issues, like racism, the college essay, and Channel One. The torch began to encourage or even cause debate in the student body, with articles on the dress code, political correctness, and the National Honor Society. Finally, the staff turned the paper over to the people, accepting letters to the editors from students and faculty. The changes introduced this year will make it the flagship of Monmouth County school newspapers for years to come.

Mr. McKenna, Jim Loughran, Radu Aghinii, J.P. Orminati, Jeff Thornton, Rob Andrejewski, Brian Miller, Michael Keffer, Dave Lelesi.

The Wilderness Awareness Club is a unique environmental education program which addresses the growing concerns of the environment and the miracles of nature. The Club was founded by Mr. Jon Young and this year is led by Mr. Steve Smith. A council of experienced C.B.A. students lead the members on topics ranging from tracking to botany to ornithology. The training sessions are held on C.B.A. grounds which provide an excellent learning atmosphere for students who are interested in nature.

Karate Club

Pat Garrity, Rob Rinaldi, Seth Laffey, Father Folchetti, Warren Chang, Peter Sheik, Robert Bonardi

The 1993-1994 school year marked the inaugural year for the Karate Club. Under the able leadership of Father Folchetti and Mr. Steve Smith, the Karate Club was formed for the students at the Academy. The members' main purposes are to practice techniques common to all forms of karate, share various techniques used in karate, and for light kumite (sparring). The members meet once a week in the school gymnasium. They come dressed in their karate garb, and start their training. Usually, twelve to eighteen members are present each meeting. The president of the club is senior Pat Garrity, who along with vice-president Peter Sheik are the student leaders. Sophomore Rob Rinaldi acts as the treasurer and secretary. While enjoying its current success, the club's underclassmen hope that it will continue to thrive in years to come.

Student Council

The Student Council headed into the 1993-1994 school year with a full head of steam. Under the expert guidance of Mr. Greg Higgins, the four executive officers had great success with freshman field day, the dances, and semi-formal. Many ideas and projects presented themselves throughout the year and were taken on aggressively.

The Student Council elected homeroom representatives in the 2nd semester. The success of the Giving tree program (which was started by Father Folchetti) led to this move. With greater concerns and needs of each class, the Council was able to accomplish tasks for everyone in the C.B.A. community. Many leaders stepped forward and helped foster a sense of pride in our school.

The volunteer, arts and drama committees did a tremendous job as well. The work of Matthew Makrinos, Tim Sullivan, Charles Grosso and Chris Goss led to activities such as the Cabaret, the resurgence of Captain Colt and much community service.

Finally, I'd like to thank the other executive officers. Matt, Bart and Jim did a fabulous, though some times thankless, job. The student body, especially the class of 1994, supported us throughout the year. We thank you for your spirit and faith in us.

— Rob Andrejewski

The LaSallian chapter of the N.H.S. began the year by making history. Brian Miller and Michael Groeninger attended the first ever national conference of the National Honor Society in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Along with their moderator, Dr. Koch, the three represented C.B.A. in an exchange of ideas and goals. New plans from the conference included homework help and a new induction ceremony.

The N.H.S. underwent a major change in its structure when the grade standard was dropped to 92. Despite some controversy, the National Honor Society will benefit from increased membership in the years to come.

Over the past few years, the majority of the volunteering among students took place through the Christian Service Classes. As the 1993-1994 school year began, the students took it upon themselves to respond to the needs of our community. After approaching Mr. Higgins with the idea, a new service organization was formed. The Student Council Volunteer Committee's main goal is to provide all students with the opportunity to be an integral part of their neighborhoods. Volunteering can take place with the elderly, homeless, and even with the cleanup of the beaches in our area. During the weeks before Halloween, the members raised money for the Alliance For A Living Ocean. By obtaining donations from fellow students, the volunteers raised money to help the marine life in the Shore area. We hope that this committee will be an important link between the students and the community around us.

Varsity Math Team

The Varsity and junior Varsity Math Teams compete in two different leagues which are the Catholic High School Math League and New Jersey State League. As of mid-season, the Varsity team is near the top of the Catholic Math League led by J.P. Orminatti who is tied for first with a perfect score. Other members who have been scoring high are Radu Aghinii, Joh Sawyer, Mark Grabowski, and Jeff Thornton. The better students are then invited to represent C.B.A. in the Shore Math League.

The Junior Varsity team is as strong as ever. Steven Schrippa is tied for first in the Catholic league with Tim McGovern and Adam Olsen close behind. The future looks bright with the strength of the underclassmen.

The Father's Club of C.B.A. was founded for two purposes: to create a spirit of comradeship among alumni, fathers and friends of C.B.A. and to be assistance to the Academy. The club holds regular meetings to increase interest in the Academy and its academic standing in the community. This organization sponsors the annual Pot of Gold Raffle and supports the Century Club drive. A father and son communion breakfast brings the members and their sons into close union with the religious dimensions of C.B.A. Each year the Father's club organizes a variety of functions ranging from social activities through a maintenance committee. In addition, the men of the Father's Club help out with supervision at many athletic events and other functions.

The Mother's Club is an organization for all the mother's of C.B.A. The club was formed in 1975 to assist in the present and future success of the Academy. This is accomplished by aiding in school activities and services as requested by the school, helping financially in whatever way the school administration considers desirable to supplement school funds, uniting the members in the closest bonds of good fellowship and promoting community interests in C.B.A. The financial goals are achieved by sponsoring an annual luncheon and fashion show in October and an art show in February. Services rendered by club volunteers consist of publishing a newsletter, providing chaperones for school dances, and hosting and assisting at several in-school receptions.

Arister

Arister is Christian Brothers Academy's literary magazine. It is a collection of the student and faculty's artwork, poetry, and prose. It consists of a staff of approximately twenty-five students and is moderated by Mr. Joseph Fili. This year, the Arister staff consists of a plethora of enlightened and free spirited students who, along with Mr. Fili, have dedicated themselves to providing the students with the finest selection of uncompromised art available to the C.B.A. community. We believe in the beauty of aesthetic and didactic art and readily embrace new ideas. Arister is distributed annually, and can be enjoyed perennially.

After seeing all their hard work blown away by the 1992 Noreaster, the Christmas Club was determined to come back from their defeat. Led by Brother Patrick and the club's first president Paul Wojciak, the Christmas Club started early with repairs from the destruction caused by the storm. Seniors Greg Yurkovic, Mike Hovanyetz, and Bob Williams put in countless hours of early work. The scene was put together by Brother Pat and the underclassmen. The club had a successful light-up celebration afterwards. This was followed by watching a video made up of the hard work of all the members, and interviews with Mr. Greg Higgins. Much thanks go to brother Pat and all the participants for their hard work and dedication during the Christmas season.

This talented group of attorneys and witnesses are coached and advised by Mark Fleming and the honorable Judge Louis Lo-cassio. This year's case centers around the contesting of a will. The team knows the situation that it's faced with is win it all now or face a massive rebuilding process for the next few years.

This years squad avenged a questionable loss last year to Raritan by winning the first round of this year's competition. The #1 ranked Colts mock trial team consisting of experienced seniors has set their sites on winning a state title. They are confident that the title will be sided in their favor.

Rocketry Club

The Go Club is an opportunity for students to come together to pit their mental capabilities against one another. Under Go's simple exterior of rules and play lies a game of vast strategic challenge. As the player becomes more proficient in the game, his concentration and memory skills will increase. This is just one of the many rewards this game has to offer.

With the guidance of Mr. Steve

Smith, who enjoys helping students learn by pointing out their mistakes, the Go Club has flourished. In the Go Club, the novice player has one main goal which is to go from a nine stone handicap down to an eight stone handicap against Mr. Smith. However, there is still that lingering hope that some day a God sent player will be able to challenge Mr. Smith to an even game of Go.

While walking around the C.B.A. campus on any given clear day, the observer is apt to see a group of students looking to the sky. One may think that these men are mere bird watchers, but this is not the case. They are actually members of the C.B.A. Rocketry Club. This exhilarating club is devoted to the construction of various model rockets. They then take these models to the back fields and try to launch them into the sky. This allows the club's members to not only marvel at their own work, but to also learn something about the principles of flight and aviation.

December 1st marked the beginning of the Shore High School Chess Season, but the members of the C.B.A. Chess Team began their practice rounds in September. Once again, C.B.A. fielded two teams in the league. The A team will play in the "North" and the B team in the "West" division.

Most of the players from last year were back, as was Mr. Sean Nunan, the moderator. Last year the A team made it to the playoffs only to be eliminated after the second round, and had to settle for a third place divisional trophy. This year, returning A team members seniors J.P. Orminati (captain), Dan Boccippio, Joe Pirchner, Geoff Bourne, and Brian Vista hope to make a better showing.

The B team boards this year are composed of returning senior Joe Vasconcelos and retiring sophomores Michael Karle and Bill Wedemeyer. The new B team players are junior Brandon Gruner and freshmen Dan Cifarelli and Claude Thouret. The two alternates for the team are juniors Raffi Karakashian and Steve Schirripa.

When the chess season is over in early March, C.B.A. hopefully will have another chess trophy to add to its monumental collection.

Spanish

This year's CBA Spanish Club was led by president Ramon Lumba and vice-president Adam Lake; the club moderators were Mrs. VerHoven and Mrs. Decker. The club's activities ranged from singing Spanish Christmas carols for the elderly Christian Brothers to embarrassing the French Club in an indisputable soccer game. In addition, the Spanish Club created more opportunity for its members to speak Spanish. Both Ramon and Adam extended their involvement in the world of Spanish by tutoring underclassmen the intricacies of the Spanish language. With their help and the help of the rest of the Spanish Club members, the beauty of the Spanish culture continues to flourish at Christian Brothers Academy.

French Club

The French Club this year, as in the past, has been very active sponsoring activities that generate pride in the French language and culture. A crepe party, French films, Christmas caroling at De La Salle hall, soccer and volleyball games against the Spanish Club, and a game of French "Jeopardy" are but a few examples of its creative activities. During Foreign Language Week, the club sponsored a trip to New York to see "Phantom of the Opera." Special thanks to Madame Maloney and Mr. Smith for their time and dedication.

Music

The academic year of 1993-1994 proved itself to be a turning point in the history of the C.B.A. music department. The impetus for the program's success has been the effort of our music director, Ms. Tracy Golin. Ms. Golin has brought earnest dedication and talent to this facet of the C.B.A. community. Also on hand was Christopher Dionisio as student music director. Underclassmen Martin Ho and Stephen Scott also deserve merit for their contributions this year.

The department has mingled in many occasions this year: the C.B.A. jazz sextet in Pegasus Production's "The Front Page"; the concert band, chorus, and English Handbell Choir in the annual Christmas concert; many musicians in the winter recital; the collaboration with the theatre in "Meet Me in St. Louis."

Coach Keane was up to his old tricks again this year as the Colts wrapped up their first Shore Conference crown in years. They made their second consecutive trip to Trenton State College to vie for the Parochial "A" state championship after beating Monsignor Donovan at Mercer County Park. Although the Colts were not victorious in their final match, the season was marked by many highlights.

The loss of Coach A, the legendary undefeated Freshman and Assistant Varsity Coach, was felt early in the season, but the boys soon became comfortable with each other and dominated the conference. Coach Burtnick was our new Assistant Coach and did a fantastic job in his inaugural year.

The individuals that carried this team were many. The defense was led by Chris "D" DiGiovanni and Mike Palumbo. They were flanked by Scott Martin and Jay DiDonna. Ed Wysocki was wonderful in the net. The Colt midfield was stacked. Chris Giblin and Craig Lennon were incredible in the middle and each scored quite a few goals. Nick Agostinacchio played brilliantly all year and John Sawyer fought off a nagging knee problem throughout the season and put the team into the state final with a dramatic goal. Mark Grabowski also saw quite a few minutes this year. Up front, we witnessed Sam Palumbo and our most visible player, Ed Hicks, team up for a fantastic year. Ed's injury early in the year gave Kevin Guinness the opportunity to shine and he took full advantage of it winning himself a starting spot for much of the year. A look at the any all-shore or all-state teams will show a group visually dominated by CBA athletes. The team this year had such depth and promise that nearly everyone on the team had a shot at making that list.

The end of this season wrapped up what was possibly the best four years of soccer that CBA has ever seen. The class of 1994 saw undefeated seasons freshman and sophomore years, and did not experience their first defeat as a group until the Shore Conference Tournament in 1992. They rebounded and won the first ever state title in school history. We pocketed an inspired Shore Conference Tournament victory and lost a heartbreaker in the state final. An era has come to an end as this year's seniors hand over the reigns to the underclassmen. We hope and pray that our fine tradition will continue.

Cross Country

The CBA cross country team ended its 1993 season as the eighth best team in the United States. The Academy harriers raced through the state of New Jersey as well as the Northeast undefeated. The Colts were the best team at every single meet in which they competed. This total perfection is only the third time in CBA's illustrious cross country history that it has happened. The '80 and '87 teams were the other perfect teams.

The cross country team entered the season ranked 16th in the country as well as #1 in New Jersey. From day one the Colt machine was unstoppable. At the first meet of the season, the Stewart Memorial, the Colts met the defending All-Group State Champions in Don Bosco. The harriers finished the day with 19 points and one of the most lopsided wins in the meet's long history.

The season had many highlights. The Colts traveled to legendary Van Cortland Park for both the Manhattan Invitational and the Eastern State Championships. They walked away winners at both. Senior Brian Zink was the individual champion at the Manhattan meet with Chris Chiaro in 2nd. Zink also led the Colts at the prestigious Easterns in 5th place. CBA is the most successful school in the history of the Eastern States Championships.

CBA won both the Monmouth County and the Shore. Senior Chuck Grosso was the top finisher in the County Championships, placing second. In the NJTC Championships, CBA placed 1-2-3 and ran away with the trophy for the 14th year in a row. This race saw the emergence of future stars of CBA: Eric Savoth, Brian Cunniff, and Matt Coleman.

The state championships saw CBA trounce traditional arch-rival Paul VI of Haddonfield for its third straight title. Chris Bennett became the first CBA runner to win the Parochial A individual title. Brian Zink was just 1.7 seconds behind in second place. Bennett placed 8th, Chiaro 13th, Zink 15th, Savoth 28th, and Cunniff rounded out the scoring in 48th.

The post-season honors are starting to come out and CBA is cleaning up. Zink, Bennett, and Chiaro all made All Shore teams as well as All State teams. Grosso, Savoth, Cunniff and Matt Coleman also made All Shore teams.

The '94 squad looks strong but will lose a strong group of seniors that have led the team for two years. These seniors are Brian Zink, Chuck Grosso, George Kochman, Rob Fallone, Dustin Riccio, Chris Bennett, Matt O'Rourke, and Scott Shortmeyer. Count on Tom Heath, called one of the greatest success stories by Elliot Denman of the Asbury Park Press, to come up with a winner in '94.

The 1993-94 basketball season got off to a great start. The Colts opened up winning the Benedictine Capital City Classic in Richmond, Virginia. This victory set the standard for the rest of the year. Once back in New Jersey, the Colts rolled through the regular season with only one loss which came to #1 ranked St. Anthony of Jersey City. The Colts were ranked #1 at the Shore and as high as third in the state. Going into the Shore Conference Tournament, the Colts were ready to repeat as champions. After defeating St. Rose, Holmdel, and RBC, the Colts beat Long Branch, thus giving CBA its second straight title. With a record of 19-1, the Colts look to win the state title and a trip to the Tournament of Champions, thus wrapping up a monumental season. With only five seniors on the team, the Colts look to have another successful season next year.

Indoor Track

The Indoor Track team ranks among the best ever at the Academy. Bob Maier's team won five of six major championships and produced many memorable individual performances along the way. The Colts dominated the area, taking the Monmouth County Relay Title as well as the County and Shore Conference Championships. They also captured the Catholic Track Conference, but the high point of the season came when the Colts corralled the State Group IV Relay Title, a feat never before accomplished by a C.B.A. team. Senior Chris Bennett led the team to #1 state rankings in the distance medly relay and the 4 x 800 relay, and including senior Chris Kant, senior shotputter Mike Boyle and junior highjumper Kyle Kennedy, the Colts were able to make the season one to remember and establish itself as one of the best ever.

Swimming

The 1993-1994 aquatic Colts started off yet another season displaying dominance. The CBA Swim Team has yet to lose a Shore Conference meet in their four year history. This year they won their fourth straight Monmouth County and Shore Conference Championships in grand fashion by doubling the score of the second place team and practically rewriting the record books. The team also posted a strong second place finish in the prestigious Pirate Invitational.

This year's senior class was part of the first ever CBA Swim Team and has watched Coach Mike Sullivan mold this "young" team into a powerhouse. The seniors leading the squad are Kevin McHugh, Ken Juster, Andrew Bennett, P.J. Doehner, and captains Tom Wilkens and Radu Aghinii. This crew is supported by a strong crop of underclassmen including juniors Chris Kelly, Paul Pinther, Chris Warenkiewicz, Chris Yerich, and sophomores Brian McHugh and Frank Delaney.

In each of its first three years, the team has gone a step further in the state tournament. This year the swim team hopes to capture the only title that has eluded them thus far - The State Championships.

Ice Hockey

CBA hockey has had one of its best years in recent memory. Starting off at 14-3, having lost to the top three teams in the state, the number 4 seed Colts had high hopes going into the State and Gordon Cup Tournaments.

This year's team was strong throughout the entire lineup, getting big games out of many different players. Junior Jeff Brow carried much of the offensive load while seniors Ryan Bogan and Erik Falkenhagen controlled the defense.

Juniors Cameron Bruce and Adam Olsen along with sophomore Dustin DePalma each made big contributions to an offense which kept opposing goaltenders busy with countless shots on goal.

Juniors Dan Keane and Tod Theile provided great performances in goal, giving the Colts a chance to win each game. With both of these goaltenders returning and the loss of only three players, next year's team should only build on this year's accomplishments.

The '93-'94 Colt Wrestling team was competitive in the talented "A" North conference with victories over Marlboro and Neptune. The win over Neptune marked the first time CBA had defeated Neptune in wrestling in over twenty years. Despite the loss of several starters to injury - including junior heavyweight Greg Genovese and sophomores Steve Sarnecky (112) - the Colts managed to accumulate a .500 record including dominant victories over Matawan and Red Bank. Senior captains Matt Smuro (160), Adam Lake (152), and Kris Kantor (130) and junior stand-out Kelly Dowd (125) were consistently ranked in the Shore throughout the season. Seniors Joe Venezia and Chris Craven, juniors Mike McCarey and Mike Tomaino, and sophomore sensation Al LaRocca all had outstanding seasons.

The 1993 season was one of incredible success for the Colts, who assessed an impressive 25-3 record in route to the school's first ever Shore Conference title. At the heart of the team's success was a strong junior class.

Returning as seniors in '94, this highly successful class looks to have an outstanding season. The powerful Colt pitching staff will be lead by seniors Steve Skrocki and Andy Kinsella. Handling the pitches behind the plate will be the always dangerous Bart East. Along with their on the field antics, Chris Kenney and Duke Ellis provide the Colts with an excellent combination up the middle. Third-basemen Chris Farley and outfielders Chris Romaglino and John Sawyer complete the senior leadership of this experienced club. The domination of the 1994 Colts should come as a surprise to the many teams trampled by the Colts.

Tennis

This spring the tennis team led by Coach Dan Keane hopes to have another successful season on the hardcourt. Last year's team was able to take the Division "A" North title. Unfortunately, the team could not win states. Even with this disappointment, the team has pulled together resolved to defend their title. Hopefully, with the return of Scott Baabka, Dave Kenas, and a more experienced underclassmen lineup, including juniors Adam Cortese and Rajeev Kuchibhatla and sophomores Oliver Liao, Chris Hillary, and Bobby O'Conner. We hope to be the power house of the "A" North division. We look good and feel that we can hold our own against such local power houses as Homdel and Ocean. This year's team promises to equal or better last year's strong performance if everyone can stay healthy.

Outdoor Track

Spring of '94 sees the returning State Champions hitting the track and field scene with authority. The Colts were the 1993 Monmouth County and Parochial A state champions. With a team comprised mostly of underclassmen in '93, the '94 season looks even better than last year. The best distance squad on the East Coast looks to dominate all competition they face. Seniors Chris Bennet, Chuck Grosso, Rob Fallone, George Kochman, Matt O'Rourke, Dustin Riccio, and Brian Zink lead the powerful distance core. The sprinters became a serious force last season and look to improve again this year. The bulk of the Penn Relay 4 x 400m championship team returns for the Colts as well. Seniors Chris Kant, Mark Grabowski, Nick Poruchynsky, and Rob Fueker lead the Colt speed. Hurdlers, Brian Miller, Grabowski, and Fueker hope to regain their strides that helped them to join the state's elite. The field team consisting of Mike Boyle, E.J. Hannefy, Sam Sollami, John Trojanowski, and Scott Martin anchor the State Champion Colts. The future also looks bright for CBA track. Juniors Chris Chiaro, Matt Coleman, Kyle Kennedy, and Shannon Martiak give the Colts a solid group of young athletes that insure CBA success for years to come. But first, the rest of the state has to get by CBA in '94.

Golf

This year's golf team looks to rebound from a productive, but disappointing '93 season. The Colts started off hot with a new Monmouth County record (311) and a Region 6 State Championship. Toward the end of the season, however, the Colts lost some steam, losing the Shore Conference by two strokes and finishing seventh in the State Tournament.

To the delight of Brother Andrew, the Colts still finished atop the Shore Coaches Poll at the end of the season. Newly appointed Coach Sewnig looks toward third team All-Shore selection Scot Pasquale and Rich Fogliano to vie for individual titles in '94. Juniors Jared March and Michael Wassmer plan to help the team get back to the State Championships.

Pegasus

The production of the 1994 edition of the Pegasus Yearbook began during the summer at a workshop in Trinity-Pawling, New York. This workshop allowed the editors and Mr. Hrycenko to prepare for the difficult task ahead. Over the next six months the yearbook team would face much adversity in trying to capture our best memories at C.B.A. We worked diligently to create original and innovative layouts to best portray Academy life. Our greatest reward was the sense of accomplishment and pride in completing a finished product which emerged from our ideas and dedication.

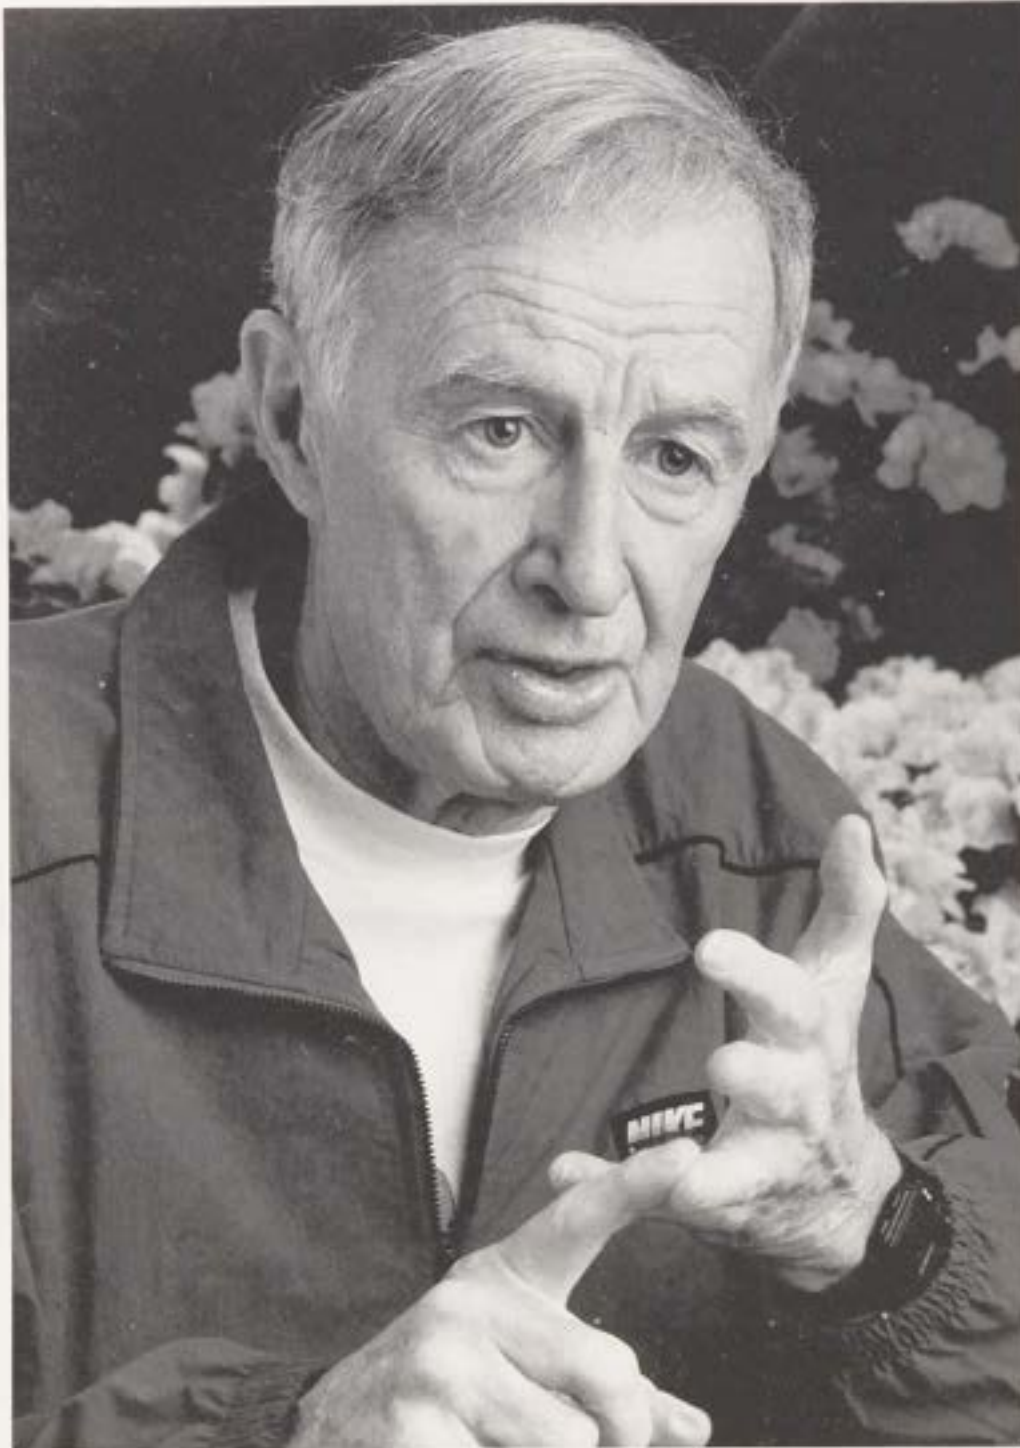

The patience and guidance of our advisor, Mr Hrycenko, was truly a tremendous asset to our success. Under his leadership we learned lessons as a team and were able to produce a yearbook which will make the C.B.A. community proud.

A Tribute

Dr. George Sheehan

Founding Father of C.B.A.

Sheehan remembered as visionary and achiever of dreams

Monmouth County and the rest of the world knew him as a successful cardiologist, charismatic lecturer, philosopher, journalist, author, athlete, and pioneering leader in the fitness movement. At Christian Brothers Academy we remember him as a visionary and achiever of dreams.

A principal dream he had once was the all-boys Catholic High School in Monmouth County with the De La Salle Christian Brothers on its faculty. With the help of his father-in-law Peter Fleming, business man John Henderson and a host of like people his dream became reality in 1959 when the first class was admitted to Christian Brothers Academy.

Continuing his impossible dreams, Dr. Sheehan worked and led in the development of the present CBA. For the years from the 1960's through the 1990's he brought clear insights, a cool head and a steady goal to the Board of Trustees of the Academy, even in a period of drastic changes. CBA today is grateful that Doctor Sheehan was a dreamer, but more so, a doer.

The close bond between the De La Salle Christian Brothers and George Sheehan dated back to 1953 when he enrolled at Manhattan College. It was there he first established himself as an outstanding student, an exceptional runner in both cross-country and the mile run. Christian Brothers' values and ideals learned at Manhattan College inspired his personal, professional and civic development. Association with the Brothers enabled him to capture the spirit of faith and zeal which marked his service to Catholic secondary education. In their turn the Christian Brothers conferred in him the honor of becoming an Affiliated Member of their Institute.

George Sheehan had shown them that persons are great because they can dream and then make the dreams come true.

Be a legend in your own mind- Dr. George Sheehan

Running guru and Academy founder leaves this legacy to past and present CBA students.

George Sheehan, one critic has said, is a legend in his own mind. Of course I am. You should be too. Each one of us must be a hero. We are here to lead a heroic life. When we cease to do that we no longer truly exist. Alfred E. Housman described it well: "Runners whom fame outran/and the legend died before the man"

What fame? you ask. The only true fame, is the inner celebration of yourself. Nothing else lasts. Legends are perpetually dying. They must constantly be revived. We must always be searching for the grail, never ceasing in our labors; forever on trial for the gift of existence.

Susan Cheever writes of her father John Cheever's battle to escape his constant pressure. "To leave behind the torpid stability of the suburbs and the responsibilities of a house and family and most of all to escape the pressure to continually surpass himself as a writer."

Each of us knows those urges. We look to a future where we are free to do as and with whom we please. We look to the time when work and effort, duty and obligation will cease. To a day when we can take our ease and enjoy the fruits of our labors, no longer in contention with the most difficult of rivals - our youthful self.

We should know better. The battle is never over. The war is never won. Today's bear landscape is always and ever the arena where I contend with myself. I say my prayers and go to combat.

No one else may be aware of this struggle. It does not matter. The hero needs no recognition. The deed is done. The audience of one is satisfied.

No matter how much we are aware of these truths, we put them aside. The heroic is too much for us. Perhaps the most searching question anyone can ask of themselves is "Why don't I feel heroic in this life?" Few of us admit that which gnaws at our innards is this question of making some heroic contributions to our own or the general good.

A young artist who read these lines said "These words stuck out a new strength in me. They revived resolutions, long fallen away and made me set my face like flint."

That strength is there. Those resolutions have substance. That flinty determination is part of our higher nature. We need only read William James to have these qualities renewed with us. "Mankind's common instinct for reality," he writes, "has always held the world to be essentially a theater for heroism."

That is the reason, wrote Ernest Becker, we still thrill to Ralph W. Emerson and Friedrich W. Nietzsche. "We like to be reminded that our central calling, our main task on this planet, is the heroic."

The universal problem, says Becker, is the fear of death, and only through a superlative cosmic heroism can we overcome it.

"What one is doing to earn his feeling of heroism is the main self-analytic problem in life."

"It begins to look as though modern man cannot find his heroism is everyday life anymore, writes Becker. Do not for a minute believe it. Heroism is ever available. Through ordinary experiences the ordinary man can become extraordinary. The heroic, said Kierkegaard, had no relation to the difference between one man and the other. Heroism means being great in what every human can be great in.

So life does resolve down to finding the way we are best suited to be a hero. To find our arena, our event, what it is we do best. My legend will not be your legend. We are about the business of making unique self. How we can best to that is next on the agenda.

The common man reaches excellence by making demands on himself.

Our highest need is to be a hero. From childhood on we want to be number one. As adults we seek some assurance of immortality. We want those we leave behind to remember we were here.

The greatest psychiatrists and theologians and philosophers have given us their thoughts on this subject. That need not deter us from deciding for ourselves, coming to our own conclusions, living our own lives. Their words may stiffen our spines, gird our loins and stiffen our faces like flint - but what course we pursue then will be our very own. The hero, if nothing else, is his own man.

Our education at C.B.A. is based on the beliefs and teachings of Jean Baptist de La Salle. Besides a well rounded study of the arts and sciences, the La Sallian tradition imparts faith and values to each individual. This element is key to our development as Christian men and scholars.

The La Sallian tradition has provided a strong foundation for future mental and spiritual growth. Our experiences at C.B.A. have prepared us for the difficult decisions and changes which lie ahead. We have learned how essential it is to share our gifts with the community and benefit from the talents of others. The values and lessons instilled by the La Sallian tradition have given us the potential for a successful future.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the people that worked on the publication of the 1994 Pegasus. We began in the summer at yearbook camp in Pawling N.Y. and survived the time lost due to weather to finally finish in February. This yearbook would not have been possible without the following people.

Mr. Walter Hrycenko's guidance and leadership kept us headed in the right direction. His hard work and determination was simply vital to the quality of the book.

Mr. Dave Schofield is our representative from Delmar Publishing. We would like to thank him for flexibility with deadlines, patience, and his skills as a photographer.

Eric Ebeling and Steve Mansfield worked together diligently to produce the Senior section. They were responsible for representing this year's graduating class and they came through with a final product that will make the Class of 1994 proud.

Dan Reilly has captured the essence of C.B.A. sports with the help of Sean Bradley. Their determination was apparent in the way they handled the dual tasks of playing for the basketball team and creating the Pegasus' Sports section.

Peter Stewart did an outstanding job on this year's Faculty section. Mike Uchrin assisted him in creating an original representation of our faculty.

Tom Cinko, the layout editor, spent many free periods working on the computer. We thank him for his amiable personality, patience, and willingness to assist elsewhere when deadlines were at hand.

Ketan Seth and Greg Gaffney had one of the most gruelling yearbook tasks - the Activities section. Their work displayed the dedication which is essential to the success of extracurricular activities at C.B.A.

Brian Kostka and Liam Dunne should be commended for their work on the Underclassmen section. They worked with many other staff members to create a memorable section.

While many of the photographs in this book were taken by Ramon Lumba, Ravi Murugesan, Bill Golden and Erik Kwon, the student portraits, faculty candids and varsity sports pictures are a product of the excellent work of Normandy Studios of Plainfield and our principal photographer Mr. Paul Tighe.

There were also many other people who volunteered their time and effort. They include Bobby O'Conner, Pat Mullaney, Erik Jacobsen, Scott Decker, Scott Dolan, Sean Duane, John Simek, Kevin Kelly, Andy O'Callaghan, Mike Callari, and Dr. Garry Koch.

We feel as if this year's Pegasus exemplifies the values of the entire C.B.A. community. We would like to remind the seniors, as we all go our separate ways, to reflect on the gifts C.B.A. has given us. Remember that the gifts we receive here at the Academy and later in life are given to share. St. John Baptist de La Salle pray for us. Live Jesus in our hearts forever.
