To Whom Much is Given...

As students of Christian Brothers Academy we try to do things a little better than everyone else. We are supposed to. Each of us has been endowed by God with special gifts and talents. Our parents, too, have given us so much: their unconditional love, their unique wisdom, and their precious time. Those we encounter each day give us endless opportunities to grow in grace and wisdom.

Our theme was chosen from the Gospel according to Saint Luke, the parable of the Vigilant and Faithful Servants (Luke 12:35-48). In this story Jesus tells us that we have been entrusted with our Master's property, and that we do not know when the Master will return to see what we have done with it. Those who use the Master's property according to His will shall be honored by the Master. We are asked to see our talents in this light: as belonging to God who has made us their stewards. The ways we use these gifts of God will please Him or displease Him.

From the moment we were born our parents knew that we had potential and that we needed to be nurtured and cared for. They sacrificed much for us. They sent us here to receive an education, yes, but moreover to learn about life. CBA is renowned for having a talented and devoted faculty: teachers that pay attention to us as individuals, emphasize teaching and advising, and make themselves accessible to us. At the Academy we have been given the chance to grow academically, athletically, artistically, socially, and spiritually. Not every school offers its students such great opportunities in such great measure. However, having received these gifts, there is a catch—they must be paid back.

Expected.

Over the years, we have received time after time. Now we must return the favor manifold. It would be wrong to avoid this responsibility. We owe so much to our parents. They deserve sons to be proud of. They ask so little of us. We must also share ourselves with our peers. There is a lot of creative energy within and between us; to be useful and creative we must channel it in the right directions. For this reason we are called to rise above the rest and lead. Like Jesus the Great Shepherd, we must be shepherds to those who have gone astray.

In school we can help our classmates when they need help. In the classroom or on the sports field, everyone can use a hand once in a while. We must challenge each other to be concerned and responsible for one another. This sense of caring and unity is already a part our lives here at CBA. One can easily see the enthusiasm that motivates seniors to tutor underclassmen in the Library as part of the NHS Homework Help program. One need only glance in on a group presentation in Spanish class to see us working together. After school our voices blend in support of our soccer team.

We have the ability to be great, each and every one of us. It would be a shame to leave such potential unfulfilled. It remains to us each to accept our own missions, to take what we've been given and make the most of it. Actually, this responsibility extends beyond the borders of the CBA campus. We have an obligation to contribute to our community. Any community is only as good as its members. Therefore, as our entrance as adults into the rapidly changing world nears, we must get involved, use our gifts, and improve society. Since we were children the responsibilities of citizenship rested on our parents' shoulders while we coasted. They carried the load in order to allow us the space to learn and grow. Now we are grown, and though we continue to learn we must also take our places in the world.

While we begin to become active members of our community we should not forget that we are still young. We still have many gifts and talents that have not been found yet. Even those that we have identified we must develop and refine. We should never settle for second best. We have the abilities and the resources; we have what it takes. Our challenge is to devote ourselves to excellence in all that we do, in every situation.

The Cavalier poets urged, "Carpe diem!" Seize the day! Live life to its fullest. Be the cause of something great. Start with yourself, and then affect those around you, and outward, in ever-growing circles. Exploit your resources and even your reserves to benefit yourself, your family, your peers, your school, your community, your world. After all, "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." (Luke 12:48)

A Surfer's Prayer

Dear Lord, my God, who resides above,
 The Ocean, Your creation, I do Love.
 Its beauty and power are so great,
 Each time I enter You control my Fate.
 Paddling out as it froths and chums,
 A ride, a line, my soul does yearn.
 I take gratefully what You give,
 And with Your protection I do live.
 It is not my place to ask for more,
 You gave me life, the waves, a board.
 To the majestic ocean I escape for fun,
 But if it is my time to join You,
 Happily, it will be done!

ACADEMIC CONVOCATION

Something should be said on behalf of the individuals who rise to meet the challenges of life and go beyond the ordinary standards. There are many individuals in the student body who have risen to the academic challenges that Christian Brothers Academy has placed before them. It is all too often that students who have excelled in the classroom are overlooked for those who have excelled on the playing field. These students who have provided a consistent effort in various academic fields will receive the recognition they deserve today. I feel that it is very appropriate that these young men be honored at this mass commemorating St. John Baptist de la Salle because they have shown, through their diligent effort that they have risen from the ordinary student to extraordinary student.

- Michael Sheehan '95

As I reflect on why I was chosen to speak at this convocation, I realize how important it is to actively support the school and the teams as they compete. I have also experienced first hand, the values gained from participating in team sports. Of course, winning is always nice, but learning the values of teamwork, enjoying the game and developing friendships with your teammates are what makes competing so rewarding.

Everyone here deserves congratulations and should appreciate the experiences they shared with their teammates and coaches who helped make them better people. I think Coach Wiz put it best when he was asked about the contributions of this year's seniors. "Their legacy is not in winning a championship, but rather in how hard the kids played, their unselfish teamwork and the kind of people they are." Thank you and Contratulations.

High School- all 613 days of it- has been fun. Work, but fun. In case you've been wondering, that's 97 full weeks of school, 102 "A" days, 4,504 periods totaling 180,160 minutes. By my calculation, we each had to read on average, 1,124 pages of summer reading per year, actually reading an average of 269 pages all during the first week of school, netting an average summer reading score of 68...But enough about me and my ramblings. Math begone!

So what about us? Here we sit on the verge of freedom...and women, one month before any other local senior class, with our diplomas before us, our parents behind us, parties waiting outside the door, and beyond that, summer unfolding for weeks and weeks ahead, college beckoning, and life yearning to become ours. The excitement is so overwhelming, it would be easy to neglect the present moment. Before we step out into that future, however, before we leave high school completely behind, it would be important, one last time, to take a few notes, mental notes, to study the faces nearby, to capture the details permanently, so that when our senioritis has finally faded, valuable memories will remain.

Some Who Have Given Much...

Brother Thomas Wilkinson F.S.C. has exemplified the spirits and ideals of being a LaSallian Christian Brother. His dedication to the students of Christian Brothers Academy is unmatched, along with his love for what he does.

On September 3, 1995, Cal Ripken Jr. of the Baltimore Orioles is scheduled to break Lou Gehrig's streak of consecutive games played. Lou Gehrig was also called the Iron Horse; that name could also be applied to Brother Thomas. Brother Thomas could often be seen racing down the hallway to a homeroom to make an announcement or strolling through the cafeteria to make sure people were working on applications.

Brother Thomas arrived at his office each day at 8 AM. He did not leave until all business for the day was completed. One could often find Brother Thomas on weekends in his office working on some project for a student.

Brother will surely be missed at Christian Brothers Academy, but his legacy will never be forgotten. He is the true "Ironhorse."

Brother Thomas will stay close to the CBA family by working with the Administration.

Brother Thomas Wilkinson F.S.C.

For thirty one years a steady, patient and caring person helped to establish the reputation of CBA in both academic and athletic excellence. Mr. John O'Shea joined the faculty of a recently established Christian Brothers Academy in 1964, having just been graduated from the College of the Holy Cross. He was hired to teach Language Arts and French. He was also the freshman cross-country, indoor and outdoor track coach. As time progressed and the needs of the students changed, Mr. O'Shea changed along with them. He moved into teaching Latin full time and took over the helm of the varsity tennis team from Brother A. Patrick Martin. It is during this 11 year period that Mr. O'Shea left his most public mark on the history of CBA. His well coached and disciplined teams won 242 matches, six Parochial "A" state titles and two overall state championships. During this time CBA became a tennis powerhouse in Monmouth County and the state of New Jersey.

In the late 70's new opportunities arose in Mr. O'Shea's life. He resigned as tennis coach and took up the task of running the Jersey Shore Tennis Academy in Little Silver. During this time Mr. O'Shea also joined the Mathematics Department, teaching Algebra 1 and 2 and Geometry. In later years, with a resurgence in interest in the classics, Mr. O'Shea again taught a class of Latin 1. He had also assumed the position of tennis pro at the Navesink Country Club in Middletown. In May Mr. O'Shea announced his retirement.

At CBA we will miss his steady and easygoing style. His soft-spoken demeanor, quiet sense of humor and perhaps most important, his consistency. We wish Mr. O'Shea and his wife Pat a long, healthy and enjoyable life in their retirement. We hope that they will always feel that they are a part of the LaSallian family at CBA.

Mr. John O'Shea

My first recollection of Mr. Chesney took place in September of 1964 as I started my senior year at "THE" Academy. He was an ex-marine, crew cut and a gym teacher with drill sergeant tendencies. I really didn't know what to make of him! Wise cracks kept coming out of his mouth! When he learned that I ran track...forget it! To him, wrestlers were "REAL MEN", but track guys ran around in short pants! I was not, however, about to argue with him!

Five years later I became his peer...almost! As a new CBA teacher, it was impossible to call him "Tony"! He, however, called me, "Ace", "Stick", "Mr. Heath", "Coach", and finally, Tom.

That whole process took decades, but over the years I realized what was most important to Mr. Chesney- Family, Friendship and Loyalty.

He has taught a generation and a half of CBA men. In those years he has left a great impression upon us. I know for a fact that faculty meetings will never be the same.

Tony, you may retire but you will never be forgotten.

-Mr. Tom Heath

Mr. Anthony Chesney

Mrs. Ann Cokelet

The prophet Micah wrote: "You have been told...what the Lord requires of you: Only to do the right and to love goodness, and to walk humbly with your God." In many different ways throughout her twenty-five years at CBA, Mrs. Ann Cokelet has lived out and exemplified these requirements.

No one has devoted more time and energy to the Academy than Mrs. Cokelet. Her work, behind the scenes, in the Finance Office made the work of all her colleagues easier. If you needed to order something that you had to have tomorrow or had to have a check by the end of the day or even if you needed a piece of candy, Mrs. Cokelet would take care of you in her own special way. She always had time for everyone and made us feel important.

Mrs. Cokelet has a great love for her own family as well as the entire CBA family. She always enjoys looking at photos of our families and sharing her family stories with us. Her grandchildren, Melissa, Amanda, Keith and Daniel are a special source of pride for her.

Throughout her life, Mrs. Cokelet has developed a special relationship with Our Lord. She is a daily participant at Mass in the chapel and has belonged to various prayer and retreat groups. She is a wonderful example of a Christian actively living her faith.

Even in her retirement, Mrs. Cokelet will still be a presence in the CBA community. She will continue to work part time for the Finance Office in the Library.

"You should not doubt that God has bestowed a great gift on you in calling you to teach the young, to announce the Gospel to them, and to bring them up in a religious spirit. But this being so, God expects you to fulfill your duty with ardent zeal for the salvation of your pupils."

Lasallian Educator Award

Congratulations to Pat Tracey as the recipient of the Lasallian Educator Award!

Pat is totally dedicated to the spiritual, moral, and intellectual development of her students. Her commitment to Gospel values of love, justice, peace, compassion, and integrity is of paramount importance in the classroom. Pat's personal prayer life strengthens her ability to "touch the hearts" of her students and plant those seeds of faith that will germinate in the Lord's timing. Through the Christian Service courses, Pat has empowered many students to incorporate their beliefs into action and their witness shows great appreciation for having served humanity.

Pat's involvement in the CBA community is marked by openness, concern, humor, and a caring attitude. Her colleagues appreciate her friendly words and cheery smile. She possesses an enthusiasm for peace and justice that pervades her approach to education. Her actions epitomize the invitation of the prophet Micah who calls people to do good by "acting justly, loving tenderly, and walking humbly with our God."

Pat is most deserving of this honor and we applaud her accomplishments and many contributions to Christian Brothers Academy!

Pat Scott*

In Recognition of 25 Years of Service to C.B.A.

Mr. Martin Kenney

A graduate of the Class of 1966, Mr. Martin Kenney returned to his alma mater in 1971 to assist his coach and mentor Mr. Vinnie Cox in the basketball program. Mr. Kenney played on the first-ever C.B.A. state championship basketball team in 1965. During his twenty-five years at C.B.A., he served as J.V. basketball coach and assistant varsity basketball coach, finally retiring from the latter position in 1991. He has been the varsity baseball coach since 1973, leading C.B.A. to its only state championship title in 1977. Mr. Kenney has taught history on a variety of levels during his years at C.B.A., though he has been teaching the World History course exclusively since 1984. He has also taught physical education.

Mr. Kenney, father of two C.B.A. graduates, Marty, Jr. '90 and Chris '94, runs the summer baseball camp and organizes the summer C.B.A. baseball leagues. He can be seen around the C.B.A. campus working with his players, tending to the fields, and supervising in the weight room on weekends and late into the day. Mr. Kenney reflects the values of hard work and dedication that he aims to instill in his players and the freshmen in his World History classes. His dedication to C.B.A., strong associations among his peers, and professional attitudes in all his work, reflect the values and attitudes he learned during his years here as a student. We congratulate Mr. Kenney on his twenty-five years at C.B.A., and extend best wishes for continued success and happiness.

—Dr. Garry Koch

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club is in its 4th year of existence. Mr. DeOrio, who is the moderator, has taken the responsibility of managing a club which averages 130 members a year. The club takes 4-5 trips a year and travels to various places like Hunter and Windham in NY, Camelback and Shawnee in PA, and Vernon Valley in NJ for night skiing. The club is open to all students who enjoy skiing and snow boarding or those who are willing to learn for the first time. Snowboarding seems to be very popular as of late. The club averages 6-8 "Boarders" per trip. Members of the club pay a yearly due which entitles them to a ski club shirt, membership cards, and refreshments for the bus rides. Next year, the club hopes to increase membership and enjoy another successful season. Looking to the future, a weekend ski trip to Vermont is being discussed for the 96-97 season.

MOCK TRIAL

Each year, the New Jersey Bar Association holds a mock trial competition, in which the Mock Trial Team participates. Students take on the roles of lawyers, witnesses, jurors, and even a bailiff to learn more about and gain a deeper understanding of how the justice system works. The students are helped in this endeavor by the guidance of their moderator, Mr. Fleming, and their lawyer-coaches, Judge Louis Locassio and

Brian Raimondo talking to a class during peace week

SOCIAL AWARENESS COUNCIL

Dedicated to the task of promoting awareness about all issues affecting our global community, the Social Awareness Council has been a strong force in creating a more conscious student body. Through activities and events such as an AIDS awareness trivia contest and a fund drive for a victim of the Oklahoma City bombing, the Council has been able to achieve its goal. The culminating event of the year was the council's sponsoring of "Peace Week", a week long project that emphasized and promoted peaceful solutions to violent situations. The Council invited speakers and had a ribbon sale to raise the community's awareness of violence within our society. The Council, under the leadership of Ms. Tracey, hopes that it will be a permanent force within the CBA community.

NATIONAL HONOR

The National Honor Society is an organization of students who have maintained at least a 92 average and have participated in a variety of extracurricular and community activities. After being selected by a board of teachers, students in the National Honor Society participate in several activities which aid the CBA community.

For starters, The National Honor Society runs a daily Homework Help Program every morning in the library. National Honor Society members also help students who need individual attention. The National Honor Society Provides private tutors for those students whom the guidance department selects. Additionally, the National Honor Society runs the Open House for prospective students every fall, and it sponsors the CBA Academic Team.

Spanish National Honor Society

Spanish National Honor Society

La sociedad Honoraria Hispánica está en su segundo año y se dedica a darles a sus miembros un chance para mejorar su habilidad e interes en el idioma español. Cada miembro necesita mostrar talento con una nota de 98 por lo menos, y estos estudiantes sobresalientes reciben la instalación en marzo, durante la semana de idiomas.

La asesora, la Señora Buskin, el presidente Oliver Liao, y el vicepresidente Gavin Kenny quairon esta sociedad en sus actividades del año, incluyendo ayudar a otros estudiantes en español y competir en varios aspectos de la lengua. Todos los miembros esperan que el entusiasmo de la sociedad continúe aumentando.

SOCIETY

French National Honor Society

En 1994 le departement des langues entrangeres a CBA a annonce son association a la Societe Honoraire de Francais. Depuis ce temps, cette organisation prestigieuse a installe quinze membres.

Ces lycéens-ci ont maintenu une moyenne de 97 dans leurs études de français a CBA. C'est un honneur exclusif et on les a félicités publiquement a la cérémonie d'initiation au mois de mars.

Les membres de cette organisation doivent donner des leçons particulières de français a ceux qui en auront besoin.

The Academy Torch

This year, the Academy Torch, as usual, has been a paragon of journalistic integrity. Covering the whole spectrum of Academy information, this year's Torch featured news, sports, and stories of community interest. Thanks to the dedicated work of the editors, especially Editor-In-Chief Derek Gardella and Assistant-Editor-In-Chief Tim Yaecker, the number of issues was increased over that of last year's volume. Mr. Hugh McKenna, faculty advisor of the Torch, provides inspiration for the whole staff, and guides both the content of the paper and the creative process that laying out each issue entails. In short, thanks to the hard work of everyone involved, the Academy Torch enjoyed another successful year.

Arister

Arister, the literary journal of Christian Brothers Academy, was led this year by Dave McDonald, under the watchful eye of moderator Mr. Joseph Fili. The name Arister derives its name from the Greek word αριστε, meaning excellence. The staff of the Arister strives for excellence through the compilation of this journal, which includes poetry, prose, and artwork from both all areas of the CBA community - students, faculty, and alumni alike. This year, the staff worked hard to ensure that the Arister would be the uncompromised representative of the finest art and literature that CBA has to offer. One look at the results shows that they have once again succeeded. Thanks to all who contributed to this year's edition, and especially the contributors, without whom the Arister would possess no αριστε at all.

WILDERNESS CLUB

The C.B.A. Wilderness Awareness Club, founded by Jon Young, is a unique activity which combines the miracles of nature with service to the Christian Brothers community. Led by President Alex Pla and Vice President Bill Mack, with Mr. Steve Smith acting as moderator, the Wilderness Club is nearing completion of its nature trail, called the "Spirit Path." The Spirit Path, which is over a mile long, shows students and faculty the splendor of nature on a variety of scenic trails. Sites of interest include a Christian Meditation Clearing and a babbling brook. With the help of Terence Chung, the club is also nearing completion of a guidebook, detailing the beauties of the Spirit Path. Next year the club is planning to hold several wilderness-related activities, including an Earth Day celebration.

Go Club

Go is the oldest board game in the world. Like chess it involves advanced strategy and thought. Although it involves complicated tactics and planning, the game itself is very simple. It is played on a 19 by 19 board with black and white stones. The object of the game is to surround territory with your stones, and to kill your opponents stones.

The Go Club, which is directed by the venerable Go master Steve Smith, has been a part of CBA for years. Under his expert tutelage, students learn to become strong players.

As the senior class graduates, most of the Go Club members will be leaving CBA. The openings left by these graduates will provide an excellent opportunity for underclassmen to participate in the Go Club.

The Go Club meets each Monday after school in the Computer lab. The Go Club involves interesting and intellectual battle and the learning of Chinese words.

1996

Walter Hrycenko: Teacher, Advisor, Father, and Friend. Mr. Hrycenko joined the faculty of Christian Brothers Academy in 1984, and very quickly began to accumulate the heavy workload for which he was known. During his tenure here he served the CBA community as a teacher, department chairman, yearbook advisor, liturgy coordinator, intramural softball moderator, junior prom co-coordinator, and member of the LaSallian Committee, Faculty Advisory Council, and Sunshine Club. (I can't even affirm that this is a complete list!)

Mr. Hrycenko has stood as a living witness to the virtues of perseverance, hope, and love. Together with his wife, Loretto, and their children Mary, Christopher, and Kevin, the Hrycenko family has met their share of hardship, and come through with a smile.

When Mr. Triche left CBA in 1987, Mr. Hrycenko filled the need for a Yearbook Moderator. His first issue showed the creativity that we came to expect from him. Over the course of nine volumes of Pegasus he continually challenged himself and his staffs to produce quality work. This year's innovative cover design (painted by Justin Harm, '96) is an excellent example of his influence.

After serving CBA for eleven years, Mr. Hrycenko has accepted a position at Monsignor Donovan High School in Toms River, where he will be closer to home and family. While we miss his experience and laughter, we wish him well in his new situation.

Chess Team

This year the chess team began the season filled with optimism. Last year's feat, for the A team, of first place in the "North" division of the Shore High School Chess League, was a tough act to follow.

Co-captains Michael Karle and Will Wedemeyer, along with Daniel Cifarelli and Sou Cheng, returned to become the first four boards of this year's A team, with one new addition. The newest member of the A team was senior Joe Cook. He proved to be a valuable asset to the team.

The B team boards this year were composed of returning juniors Ian Larsen, Harteg Wariyar and Lou Zahner, sophomore Nick Frake and freshman Brian McLaughlin. The B team played in the "West" division of the Shore League.

This year the A team placed first in the "North" Division and went to the league play-offs. The B team, although not division winners, grew stronger with each game. Some of the members of the B team will move up to the A team next year.

The Chess Team is led by Mr. Sean Nunan, who coordinates the games and brings a sense of pride to the team.

Rocketry Club

If you are out on the CBA property on a sunny Spring/Fall Friday afternoon, HEADS UP! The CBA rocket club will be blasting off. The Christian Brothers Academy community has been blessed with this exciting and unique club for the past three years. This group, which numbers over 10 members, is filled novices who are curious about model rockets, and skilled experts who truly enjoy rocketry. Club members build their own rockets, in their own favorite style and technique, and launch them at a club meeting. Some of these launches are competitive, while others are just for fun. As for where they land, a whole new competition has taken over. Nothing is more exhilarating then catching a falling rocket.

Br. Patrick Higgins has advised the club for its entire existence. His rocketry knowledge and love for aviation have allowed the club to grow and make its presence known in the CBA community. Keep an eye on this club. It will be taking off in the years to come.

CHRISTMAS CLUB

The Christmas season at Christian Brothers Academy has been graced for the last sixteen years by the fine efforts of the C.B.A. Christmas Club. This year's group, which numbered over 20 students, began working in early October. For the next 2 months, the Christmas scene gradually unfolded. Through the hard work of the many skilled members, electrical work, painting, and of course, the setting up of the display, was done with ease. The exhibition has been growing over the years, and in 1995-96, new exhibits like "Christmas in the City," and "Christmas on the Farm" were added. These, along with the all time favorites: "Twas the Night Before Christmas" and the famous Stable scene add to the enjoyment of all.

What makes the Christmas club such a valued C.B.A. tradition is its service to the community. It brings together our religious traditions as well as the secular celebrations of Christmas in a most beautiful way. The display is always open to the public, and has gotten rave reviews every year.

The club owes a debt of gratitude to Br. Patrick Higgins who has put an immeasurable amount of time and effort into the club. Not only this year, but throughout its existence. His designs and artistry are the backbone to this beautiful display. Without his work, the Christmas Club display could have never been possible.

ACADEMIC TEAM

The Academic Team consists of about eight members who compete in the various academic challenges. The contests are structured in a Jeopardy-like format with categories ranging from math and science to Christmas trivia and current events. Each contest usually spans three to four weeks depending on the success of the team. This year the Academic Team competed in the Monsignor Donovan tournament, the Knowledge Master Open, and the Bridgewater-Raritan tournament. The Academic Team is always ready to face an intellectual challenge.

MATH

The Math Team, with 29 Varsity members and 41 J.V. members, had another successful year. Both the Varsity and J.V. teams took first place in the Catholic High School Math League, with Michael Basaman and Bing Shen scoring highest in their respective divisions. The team also had its best showing in 10 years in the Shore Math League, finishing in 2nd out of 20 teams. Individual awards went to Michael Basaman and James Weir. The teams took third in the New Jersey Math Teachers Association's Math Contest, with Michael Basaman once again leading the way. After taking 3rd in the Paterson State College Math Contest and 5th in the Seton Hall University Math Contest, the team competed in a nation-wide event. For its performance in the American High School Math Contest, the Math Team received a Certificate of Merit for outstanding achievement. The high scorers were seniors Michael Basaman and Gavin Kenny, juniors Bing Shen and Daniel Santos, and sophomores John Choi and Colin Curran.

The Varsity Math Team

SCIENCE TEAM

The Science Team, led by Mrs. Calderon-Grimes, meets once in each six-day cycle to prepare for its raison d'etre: competing against the top science students from other high schools. The competitions can really test the mettle of our team members, since the topics covered in competitions may run the gamut of science. Team members are expected to be able to field questions about Geology, Astronomy, Meteorology, and Electronics, as well as the Biology, Chemistry, and Physics that you might expect.

Our Team has competed in many events, including the New Jersey Science Olympiad and the King of the Hill competition.

French Club

L'existence du Club de français permet a ses quarante membres enthousiastes l'occasion de perfectionner leur français et d'apprécier les cultures francophones. Les officiers ont organise beaucoup d'activites culturelles y compris des films français comme Cyrano De Bergerac, une competition de Trivial Pursuit, un voyage a New York pour voir Les Miserables, plusieurs matchs sportifs contre le club d'espagnol, la cuisine française, le petanque, et le concert de Noel pour les Freres retraits, etc.

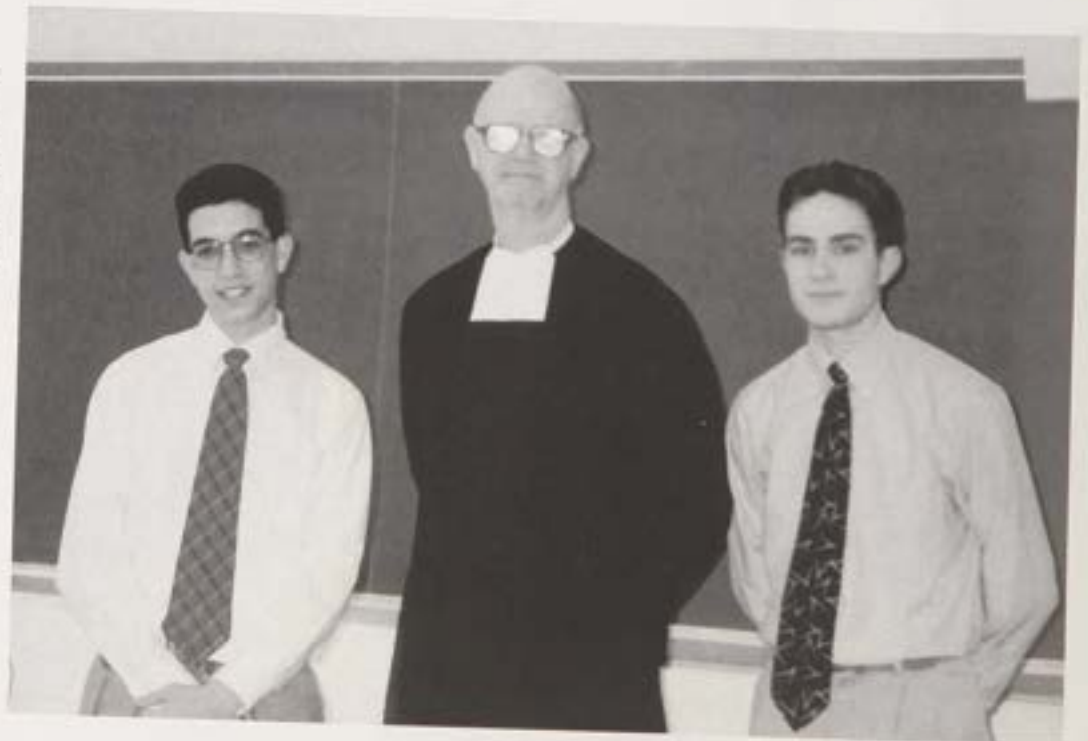

L'interet eleve des participants a ces reunions souligne le desir de ces eleves de pratiquer leur français oral.

Grace aux efforts des responsables, Mme Maloney et M. Smith, l'enthousiasme de cette organisation se voit et continue a se repandre a CBA.

LATIN CLUB

The members of the Christian Brothers Latin Club covenant to on this torch of classical civilization to the modern world. They believe acquaintance with the civilizations of Greece and Rome will help them understand and appraise this world today which is indebted to ancient civilization in its government, laws, literature, language and arts.

In this club the members; develop responsibility, foster brotherhood, promote enthusiasm, encourage competition, inspire dedication, and enrich their total growth. During the Latin Club meetings the members compete in a certamen or contest along the lines of Jeopardy. The members also view films depicting life in ancient Rome. With food and drink the members compete, socialize and enjoy each other's company.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club is a fun way to learn about Spanish and Mexican cultures outside of the classroom setting. Through the watching of films, playing games, or having food days, students are introduced to something foreign. This, in return, gives students a better understanding of different people and customs.

This year, the Spanish Club had many activities, as well as a trip to New York. The Club went to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, where we saw paintings by the artist Goya. Everyone left the exhibit with a new found knowledge of this great painter. In the regular club meetings, the Club participated in games such as Scrabble in Spanish, and Trivial Pursuit against the French Club. The Club watched two movies, "Sister Act" and "Who Framed Roger Rabbit," in Spanish. There were food days such as Cinco de Mayo, and a day where the Club broke the Pinata.

The officers this year were John Murray - President, Jim Tuohy - Secretary, Louay Toni - Vice President, and Steven Muller - Treasurer. The Spanish Club had a memorable year and will continue to be outstanding for many more to come.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council Volunteer Committee

Once again, the Student Council Volunteer Committee has had another successful year. Led by Derek Gardella, the committee has soared to new heights. This year the committee visited De La Salle Hall on a monthly basis, assisted the Collier School at their open house, helped out at First Night, Red Bank '96, and organized students to participate in the Cystic Fibrosis Walkathon. By assisting freshmen in their service projects, the Student Council Volunteer Committee has proved to be an integral link between the school and the community.

EDITOR'S PAGE

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who contributed to the 1996 Pegasus. Your hard work has made my job easier. The memories of this school year have been compiled through many long hours of arduous work. The yearbook would not have been possible without the contributions of the following men:

Mr. Walter Hrycenko taught us the basics of yearbook. He took us to Yearbook camp in Pawling, New York in the summer, even though he had already accepted a position at Monsignor Donovan. I think this action defines the dedication and commitment with which Mr. Hrycenko approaches his profession. Mr. Joseph Prioli took over the difficult job of yearbook moderator at the beginning of this year. His guidance and knowledge have kept us focused on the tasks at hand. Much credit is due him because he took over the yearbook which consumes much time and energy.

Mr. Dave Schofield, our Delmar representative, has shown great patience and flexibility during this year. His assistance has been instrumental to the completion of this yearbook. Through his humor he kept up our spirits when we were under intense pressure.

Sean Duane and Greg Oliva, who taught the staff members the basics of yearbook. Their leadership has been exemplary throughout the entire year. Without their assistance, this yearbook would have never been completed. They were the pillars of the yearbook staff.

Derek Gardella and Tim Yaecker, whose creative energy is apparent throughout the Activities section, proved themselves worthy of the unenviable position as Activities Editors. They did a stellar job with the most difficult section of the yearbook. Frank Victor and his partner in yearbook crime Ernie Lo, finished the Faculty section with relative ease. Their dedication is evident throughout this entire section.

Ryan Ebeling and Pat Mullaney, editors of the Senior section, did an excellent job with a large section. Their hard work at the beginning of this year made for a great Senior section. Bobby O'Connor, editor of the Sports section, carried on the tradition of excellence that is displayed by the sports teams at C.B.A. His persistence in finishing this section is greatly appreciated.

Peter Marturano, editor of the Student Life section, gave a great portrayal of the everyday events at C.B.A. I thank him for his hard work on his section. Dan Cifarelli, editor of the Underclassmen Section, gave a new style to this large section. His creativity is obvious throughout.

Justin Harm, Art editor, painted our exciting cover (wow!) and drew humorous caricatures of the faculty. Thanks, Justin, for your creative efforts. Mustafa Haque, Photography editor, took many of the pictures for the yearbook. I would like to thank him for this time consuming task. Oliver Liao, Literary editor, wrote the theme for this yearbook. Oliver eloquently expressed the values instilled in us at C.B.A.

I would also like to thank the contributors to this yearbook: A.J. Evans, Mike Ip, Louay Toni, Philip Ferraro, Thomas O'Connor, Joe Lazzaro, Daren Donofrio, Stephen Bacigalupo, Dave Flaherty, Rob Doehner, Peter Dunne, Steve Collins, Rob Ragati, Nick Frake and Sean Calvert.

I would like to dedicate this yearbook to the Senior Class. We have come to the end of our C.B.A. careers and the beginning of the rest of our lives. Let us not forget the values that have been instilled in us. Saint John Baptist De LaSalle...Pray For Us. Live Jesus in Our Hearts...Forever.

Sincerely,
