TEMPUS FUGIT...

As the year comes to a close many of us will be thinking about how quickly the year seems to have passed. When we look through our mental scrapbooks of all our favorite moments at CBA, Tempus fugit is especially poignant. We all wish we could relive the best times we have had. Whether it was scoring the winning point in a game, or finally mastering a difficult subject, we all have moments in our past that, while defining for us, seem to be only a small slice in time, out of proportion with the effects they have had.

Think back to the beginning of school. It seems like yesterday that we were returning to (or just becoming acquainted with) the Academy. Most of us were catching up with friends, adjusting to new schedules, going to the first sports games of the year all bringing us into the CBA community. These events took place over a series of days, yet when we look back on them, they seem to be only a series of instants in our lives. Why is this so? Maybe it makes it easier for us to recall the past. Whatever the case, we live in the present, using the past as a guide for the future.

Time does not only fly in the lives of students, but also in the lives of institutions. On September 14, 1959, busses pulled into the Academy for its first day of classes. Back then, there were only 150 students and the faculty was entirely composed of Brothers. Under the leadership of our first principal, Brother Albert Bernard McKenna, CBA began its rise to prominence. Over the years, several successors have continued to nurture the tradition of excellence. Today, CBA's student population quadruples that of its first year, and many lay teachers have joined the faculty. Although when examined closely, the process has obviously taken a long time. A conversation with any of the founding Brothers will show just how recent that first day seems. Even when comparing pictures from the first and current years, there are many similarities. The busses still pull into the same driveway, the Crazyies still cheer in the same gymnasium, and students still converse outside their lockers throughout the day. Time has flown, and will continue to fly, through the lives of us and our school.

Seniors

In the last four years, we as a class have changed from a group of almost complete strangers to a kinship of seniors. With each year, we have met new people in our class and made new friends within our class. When we think back to memories of our time as underclassmen, it becomes clear how much we have grown while at the Academy.

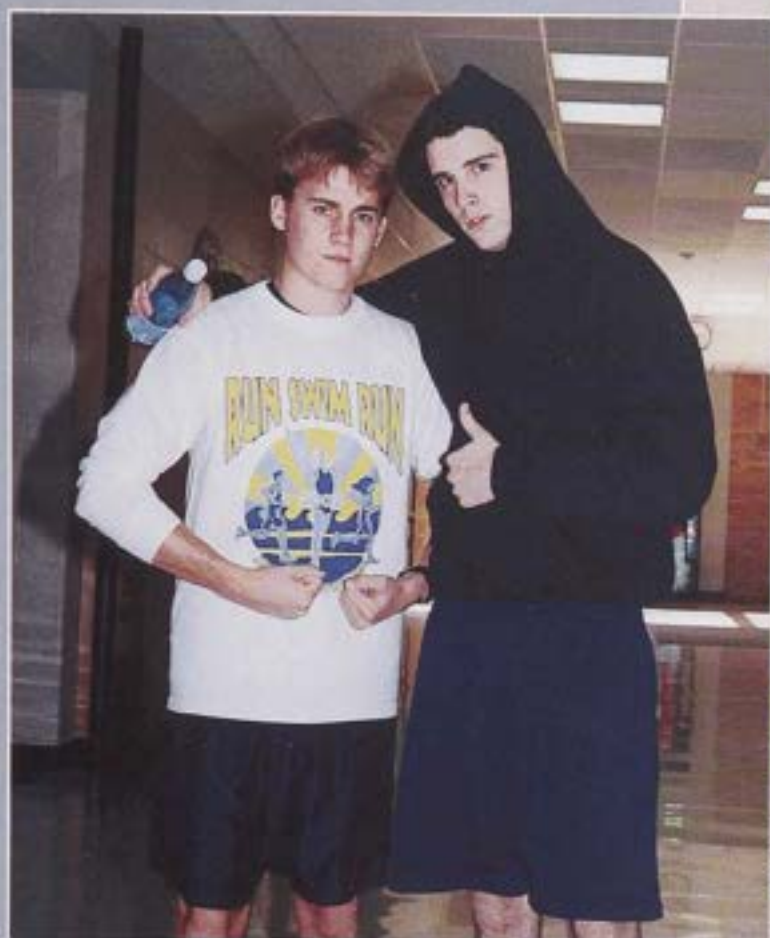

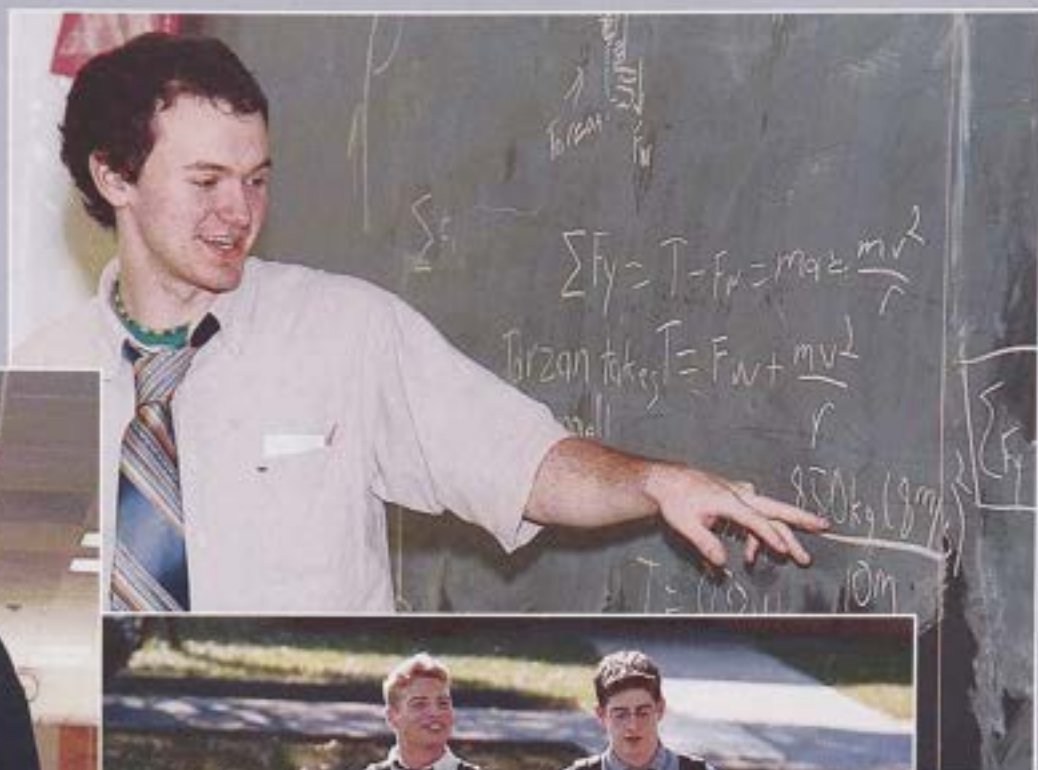

Over our time here, we have had many experiences as a class. We all remember Brother Dan's famous bus speech, the clue Brother Andrew gave each of us freshman year, and the developments of our friendships both on earth and with God. It seems odd to be able to say that we have been encountering these experiences for four complete years. These four years have been a large part of our lively existence, and CBA has become a second home for many of us.

Now that the end of the year has come, the realization that we must move on is also at hand. What is sure, however, is that the memories of our CBA careers will always hold a special place in each of us.

SERVICE PROJECT

Brother
Joseph
Miggins

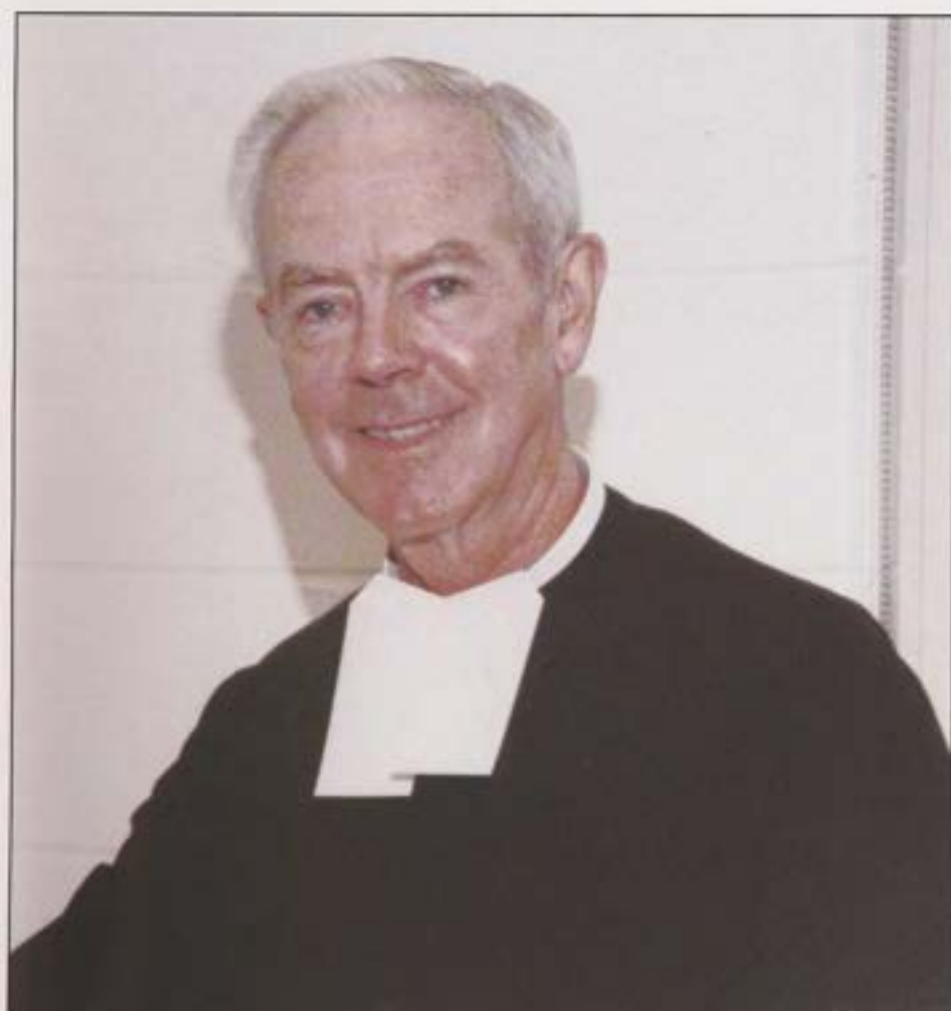

The service program is an integral part of a career at the academy. Although service has always been an essential element of the La Sallian Tradition, the service requirement was only initiated in 1994. A total of fifty hours is required for graduation. Since that time, students have completed service with numerous area organizations. Students serve on EMT squads, raise money for various agencies, tutor students, and teach religious education. Many students exceed the minimal number of hours required as they learn the value of service to the community.

Students reflect on the service they do, develop relationships with the people they serve, and foster close ties with the community.

"We won it on the field"
-Anonymous

Led by captains Nick LaBrocca and Joe Favata, this year's Colt squad finished an impressive regular season with 12 wins and only 2 losses. Under the veteran leadership of Coach Keane and Coach Matson, the Colts won their third Parochial State Title in five years. Senior Eric Zimmer headed the offense with 11 regular season goals while sophomore Michael Giallombardo had an impressive season in goal, with 12 shutouts. Seniors Kyle Gwyn-Williams, Dan Wehrle, Matt Rutkin, and O'Neil Peart also provided leadership.

This season the Colts set the state record for consecutive dual meet victories by winning their 248th consecutive dual meet in the first race of the season. The team was led by juniors Will Melofchik and Pat Ryan who placed 1-2 at states as the Colts captured their 8th straight state title. Also contributing were juniors Jake Zorski, Brett Fiorovanti, and Theo Shaheen, seniors Andrew Tignanelli and Ben Klaymen, sophomores Pete Glackin, Brian Keating, and Connor Campanella, and freshmen Greg Leach, Chris Horel, and Scott Havard.

Seniors Adam Miller, Ryan Moriarty, Brian Tyrrell, and Andrew Samuel led the field team, while seniors Paul Discipola, Chris Guenther, and Brian Giglio led the sprint team. All in all, the team had yet another successful year, with several national and state rankings.

WARSIITY BASKETBALL

The 2002 - 2003 Colts team picked up where last year's team left off and carried on the tradition of great CBA basketball teams. A couple of early losses startled the team into becoming a formidable presence in the conference. After a difficult overtime loss against Neptune in January, the Colts went on a winning streak that carried them through the rest of the way. The highlight of the season was hard fought victory over Raritan to win the Shore Conference Tournament. Lewis Thompson was tournament MVP.

The season ended in a most peculiar fashion with a 1:37 second "game" against St. Augustine Prep. An unusual set of circumstances saw the game suspended in a 74 - 74 tie. Unfortunately, the Colts could not sustain the momentum from Saturday to Monday and they lost that game in the South Jersey Parochial A Tournament.

Congratulations to Coaches Wicelinski, Hazleton and Mulligan and the team for an exciting basketball season.

YMCA Youth & Government

Under the veteran leadership of Kevin Bertoncin, Hari Sundar, and Tim Calvert, members of the YMCA Youth & Government club worked through the year drafting legislation to present at a state-wide summit held in Trenton, where it was voted on by students from across New Jersey.

C.B.A.C.C.S.

Christian Brothers Academy Classical Society

The Christian Brothers Classical Society is comprised of students intent upon deepening their familiarity with the culture of the Greeks and Romans. The influences of these two civilizations are manifested in our daily lives: in our business and educational institutions, our art, our literature, our policies, our philosophies and even in our language. CBACCS recognizes that becoming familiar with these influential and artistic undercurrents is an important step towards becoming citizens of the West who can better appreciate, as well as critique, the world in which we live.

Culinary Arts Club

The Culinary Arts Club exists to promote culture among the student body. Mike Langan was president of the club, and Ms. Carroll advised the group. Highlights of the year included a fondue party and a planned pasta dinner. Seniors Damian Mazzochi and Magee Fahey also contributed to the club.

FILM CLUB

In the second year of CBA's Film Club, Ms. Carroll led the members on an artistic journey through some of the best movies of recent years. Together, they explored many genres of films and discussed the quality of the films artistic presentation as well as its thematic elements. While the club does present the students with an opportunity to enjoy themselves, it also gives them a chance to look at these movies in a way they otherwise may have not.

Academic Team

The academic team is a club comprised of some of the Academy's most well-informed and inquisitive minds. Traveling around the tri-state area participating in Jeopardy-style competitions under the new moderator Ms. Carroll, the team sought to prove their academic superiority. The competition was fierce, and the team was young. As one member stated, "Next year we will have a strong, seasoned team." Nevertheless, they competed valiantly and are prepared to return next year with a stronger team.

SAILING

For the first time in CBA history, our school has a sailing team to represent us. Under the direction of Mrs. Hayes, the sailing team and its six founding members--Stevie Burke, Aiden Ehrenburg, John Kempton, Tom Koscinski, Steve Widdis, and Donald Burke--competed throughout the year performing surprisingly well for a first year team. The team hopes to continue its success throughout the year and return next year to compete at an even higher level. Is it possible to add another state championship team to CBA's collection? We sure hope so.

LaSallian Youth

"The spirit of God will lead you where you did not plan to go."

St John Baptist DeLaSalle

Lasallian Youth try to live out the ideals of St. John Baptist de LaSalle: Faith, Service & Community. To do this, they attempt to explore their faith as young adult Christians through service and reflection. They serve the needs of their community by volunteering to work in programs that assist those who would otherwise be neglected. CBA LaSallian Youth reach out on a monthly basis to the "anawim" of the West Lake avenue section of Asbury Park. Through their "street ministry" of delivering student-made sandwiches and donated clothing to the needy and their tutoring of elementary students in the Sisters of Charity after school program, these young men of CBA encounter the Holy Presence of God in the brokenness of their neighbors.

PEGASUS

This year was an eventful one for the Yearbook. It was the first year with a new publishing company, an extra sixteen pages added to the ladder, and sixteen more pages of color. Because of the combined efforts of seniors Chris Stucko (Ed.), Pete Solecki, Frank Balsamello, Coleman Richdale, Ryan Pennell, Dave Ghoneim, Ryan Carretta, and Dan Galligan and underclassmen Ed Ryan, Bobby Bathmann, Ed Bishof, Josh Mathew, the book was a success.

THE SOPHOMORE EXPERIENCE

Our eyes passed over the words Signum Fidei as we veered away from the September sun. We exchanged stories of summer vacations and predictions of the coming school year as swarms of wasps wove in and out of the crowd.

And so began our sophomore year at CBA. Almost nothing was new to us except the sense of familiarity. The collection of hallways no longer seemed labyrinthine, the faces of classmates were no longer strange, and insomnia was now embraced as an effective study tool.

Tempus fugit. Although it is a popular belief that time flies when you're having fun, for the CBA sophomore who is attempting to complete his homework before midnight or hand in his term paper before the deadline, it seems that time has no mercy. But then what fuels the sophomore? The statement is self-fulfilling, as sophomores, we have proven ourselves diligent, persistent, and responsible.

Yet like the reputation of CBA, our personal success is not solely measured by past achievements; rather, it is built on the thirst for success in our sophomore year.

CLASS OF 2006

IN THE BEGINNING...

Freshman Year: A Perspective

As I entered Christian Brothers Academy for the first time and looked around at my new classmates, I realized that this would be my second home for the next four years. As I learned more of the great tradition which I would be expected to uphold, I felt both a tinge of nervous anticipation and an overwhelming sense of the La Sallian fraternity. It was at this moment that I realized I was part of something greater than myself.

My first days as a freshman alleviated my anxiety and further enforced my initial feeling of belonging. Throughout my middle-school years, I had heard how difficult CBA could be. Nevertheless, any fears I had of being overwhelmed quickly subsided when I entered my first class. The teachers reshaped my view of learning, class became enjoyable, funny, and interesting. The sense of community at Christian Brothers, however, is the truly unique aspect of the school.

Administration, Faculty & Staff

2003 LaSallian Educator of the Year

Brother Michael Dwyer, FSC

With a life-long commitment to the spirit and values of the La Sallian tradition Brother Michael Dwyer has, over his seventeen years at CBA filled a variety of roles. Each endeavor he has undertaken as a minister of grace, as an effective manager and in association with his La Sallian colleagues. Bro. Michael came to CBA in 1986 and quickly established himself as one of the best teachers at the Academy. His knowledge of, and passion for, history are legendary among his students and colleagues. In 1991, and contrary to his personal interests, Bro. Michael took on the role of Associate Principal for Student Affairs. This was a demanding and time consuming position and one that took its toll on him. Even after suffering from a difficult physical illness, Bro. Michael remained in this position until 1996.

As Associate Principal, Bro. Michael was a strong and fair disciplinarian, acting out of concern for the students, the faculty and the overall welfare of CBA. He was encouraging of the work of the faculty and an enthusiastic supporter of the initiatives of the students. Bro. Michael distinguished himself as the protector for the weaker students, with a special concern for those who were the object of abuse by their peers. He worked closely in association with his La Sallian colleagues in promoting the overall principles and objectives of the Academy.

Upon completion of his term as Associate Principal, Bro. Michael took the challenging step of returning to the teaching faculty. He has continued to remain a positive member of the faculty, offering encouragement to younger teachers and support to all of his colleagues. Brother has shown that the transition from administration to faculty can be achieved with ease and grace.

Blessed with a dry wit and booming voice, Brother is a gentle man and a true gentleman. His generosity and magnanimity serve as compliments to his Christian humility. A man of genuine compassion for his students and colleagues, Brother allows his presence to speak without the need to be intrusive or overwhelming. He is a man of clear faith, endowed with the vision of La Salle, and enlivened with the gift of wisdom through his many years of teaching and administration.

The faculty at Christian Brothers Academy is proud to honor as La Sallian Educator of the Year, Bro. Michael Dwyer.

Administration

One of the great assets of Christian Brothers Academy is the stability and strength of the Administration. Brother Andrew O'Gara, who has served first as principal (1979-1991) and as president (since 1991) is noted for his ability to remember names of every student at CBA. Principal for the past 12 years, Brother Ralph Montedoro has distinguished himself through his skills in management and organization, working tirelessly in promoting Open House and CBA activities. Mr. Peter Santanello has spent the past 21 years developing faculty and curriculum to ensure that we are always in the fore in education and technology. It is Brother Daniel Gardner whom the students encounter on a day to day basis. His firm and fair hand mediates the discipline code and promotes the values of the LaSallian Tradition among the student body.

History

DEPARTMENT

This year, the History Department expanded its course offerings to include Advanced Placement Human Geography. This course, offered to sophomores, is taught by Brother Cyril O'Neill. This course joins advanced placement courses in U.S. History, European History, Psychology and Economics, in a strong curriculum of history offerings. Under the direction of Mr. Jeffrey Matson the History Department continues to develop those courses which promote sound critical thinking, analytical writing and historical understanding. When one considers the number of CBA alumni who major in history, business and psychology in college, it must certainly be a credit to both the quality of teaching and the curriculum advanced by our History Department.

Math

The Mathematics Department boasts a team of highly qualified and enthusiastic teachers. Mr. Thomas Heath and Brother Christian Jones have been teaching Math at CBA for over thirty years, and they continue to excite CBA students in the study of mathematics. With the inclusion of TI-83 and various computer programs in the math curriculum both veteran and younger teachers have adapted to new strategies and techniques to make sure that the CBA students continue to get the best in mathematics education. Mrs. Amanda Lobkowitz has guided the department through curriculum development and technological infusion.

This year the department welcomed Mr. Michael Wheeler '96 to the veteran staff joining Mr. Santanello, Mr. Speidel, Brother Stephen, Mr. Kane and Mr. Melosh.

English

With a reputation as one of the strongest English departments in the area, CBA continues to emphasize classical reading and strong writing skills. Students are lead through the great masters of American, British and Greek literature as well as a chance to dabble in the contemporary authors and literary movements. Electives which focus on writing skills help th students to further develop those skills enabling them to enjoy success both in college and in their professional lives. Mr. McKenna heads a team of exceptional teachers who love both the dynamic of the classroom and the pleasure of reading itself. Mr. Mark Signorelli fit well into the community of scholars as he joined Mr. Fili, Mr. Maier, Mr. Lelesi, Mrs. Maroney, Mr. Nunan, Mr. Lippin, Mr. Lojko and Mr. Steve Smith in the on-going struggle to help adolescent males appreciate the finer points of literature.

Science

DEPARTMENT

Mr. David Duh has lead the Science Department through many changes over the past several years. Having settled well into their new laboratories and classroom space, the Department continues to offer relevant and updated courses to keep the students continually at an advantage in the study of scientific knowledge and theory.

This year is especially exciting for the Science Department as they welcomed three new teachers. Mr. Ross Fales, Mr. Craig Dashkavich and Mr. John Hanley joined Mrs. Slattery, Mrs. Bednarz, Mr. Mulligan and Mrs. Baker in the pursuit of scientific learning and teaching.

An ever-growing curriculum, complete with advanced placement courses in Biology, Chemistry, Physics and Environmental Science is offered to prepare students for the study of science, technology and engineering as they move on to college.

World Language

DEPARTMENT

The World Language Department saw a change in leadership over the summer as Mrs. Maureen Buskin stepped down after a 16 year tenure as Department Chair. Her years as chair saw many changes in the department, including an expansion of course offerings and the hiring of additional faculty to facilitate the goals and objectives developed during those years. Mrs. Jeannine Maloney, one time chair of the Language Department at Mater Dei High School, has shown a desire to continue to keep the department ahead of the curve in world language education.

Mr. William Ryan joined the faculty this year, bringing many years of experience teaching Spanish at Manasquan High School. His presence, along with veteran teachers Mrs. Decker, Mr. Dave Smith, Mrs. Ver Hoven, Mr. Dailey and Mrs. Hall, forms the basis for a strong and highly professional department.

Religious Studies

DEPARTMENT

Fulfilling the commitment of the Academy to LaSallian education, each student is required to take four years of Religious Studies. Under the direction of Mr. Gregory Higgins, the department guides the student both intellectually and in his religious formation. While respecting the diverse religious backgrounds of the student body, the emphasis of the department is within the Roman Catholic Tradition of beliefs.

At the end of the first marking period, Mrs. Marybeth DeBlasio resigned, and CBA welcomed Mr. Jim Tortorici. Mr. Pat Scott, Dr. Garry Koch, Ms. Mary Trank, Mr. Tim Sewnig, Mr. Jack Thawley and Brother Daniel Gardner, round out the department.

Among the most popular programs offered by the Academy are the department's Christian Service/Learning and GURU Peer Ministry offerings. They provide the students the opportunity exercise their faith commitment through service to others.

Computer

DEPARTMENT

Mr. Joseph Prioli
Chair

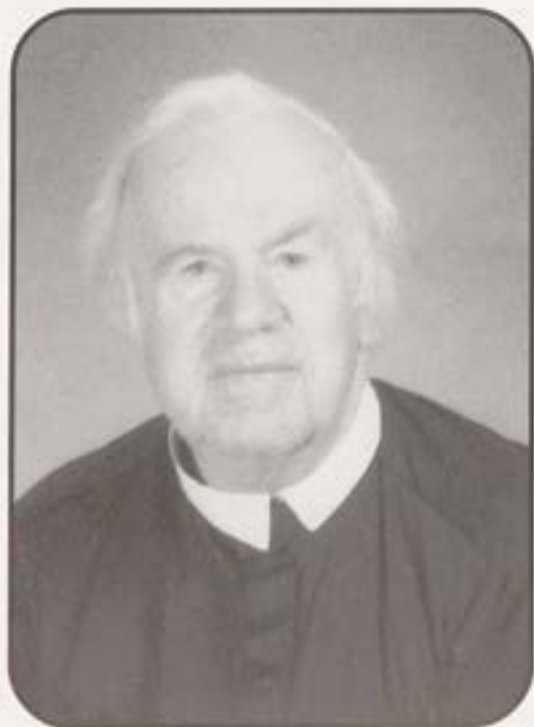

Keeping CBA ever updated in the arena of technology and computer science education, the Computer Science Department offers courses to all freshmen and sophomores. An advanced placement courser is offered for upperclassmen. Mr. Joseph Prioli coordinates both the department and serves as director of technology. He can be seen throughout the school day, hi-tech weapon in hand, answering the call to repair some malfunctioning computer. Mrs. O'Connor and Mr. Smith ably train the students in both computer applications and programming. Brother Michael assists in all areas of computer services.

Brother Henry McGrath

The CBA community was saddened in November as Brother Henry McGrath, a 20-year member of the Guidance Department, passed into eternal life.

Brother was honored in 1999 as the LaSallian Educator of the year.

Well into the age when most people were enjoying retirement, Brother Henry continued his ministry to the Academy as freshman guidance counselor.

Over three-thousand students fell under his tutelage during his tenure at CBA. While his first focus with each student was academics, Brother Henry took a keen interest in his students other endeavors and activities, and was frequently seen at various athletic contests and school events. Always supportive of the students, Brother's life was one filled with compassion and, most importantly, a zeal for the evangelical mission of his religious calling. Brother Henry, a spiritual man, influenced the lives of his students and was motivated by the loving concern for their total welfare. In this way, he clearly lived his vows in the spirit of St. John Baptist de La Salle.

Although his health was failing over the last couple of years, Brother Henry continued to come into his office and to meet with students. He began this school year even though it looked as if he lacked the strength to continue. Finally, the heart which had reached out to so many and was yet so ill, ceased its rhythmic beat. Still, the energy and strength with which he lived his life, continues in the lives of the many students and alumni whom he touched in his ministry. Among them are two members of the guidance department, Mr. Joe Finn and Mr. Tim Egan. They carry in their own work the legacy of their freshman guidance counselor, Brother Henry McGrath, as they inspire and encourage the CBA students of this age to academic, personal and spiritual wholeness and success.

Time flies . . . Time begins anew.

This yearbook would not have been possible without the dedication of a number of people. First, the staff needs to be thanked. Several students in particular gave extraordinary dedication to the project. Those who worked on the Senior Section worked particularly well together. Peter Solecki designed the pages, Frank Balsamello cropped the pictures and Coleman Richdale came up with witty captions. Joe Lukasiewicz was another essential player. As the year progressed, his layouts continued to improve exponentially. His layouts, many of the clubs pages, are among the most creative in the book. Ryan Pennell and Dave Ghoneim also offered their talents to the yearbook. We declined. Just kidding. They created the initial sports pages which set the tone for the rest of the section, a most important contribution. Juniors Ed Ryan, Dan Lukasiewicz and Jason Krausman and sophomores Josh Mathew, Ed Bishof, Rob Bathmann and Mike Coughlin also did a great job. Ryan Carretta, Coleman Richdale and Greg Plakoudas added to the yearbook with their photographic skills.

Mike Cannon, our Jostens representative, should also be thanked for the help he gave us throughout the year. He taught the staff how to use the program we use to design the yearbook and offered a number of suggestions to get our minds thinking. This was our first year with Jostens, and it was quite obviously a very successful one. Our faculty advisors were another source of inspiration. Dr. Koch made the yearbook office a fun place to be. Without his comforting sense of humor, it would have been easy to fall into the pile of cardboard boxes in the corner of the room and admit defeat. Mr. Thawley was another essential player. He took 95% of the pictures in this book, so without him we would have had quite a few empty picture boxes. Thank you to Mr. Prioli for wiring the yearbook office and setting us up with a new laser printer. Its speed is much appreciated. Finally, thanks go out to Brother Ralph, Brother Dan, and Brother Andrew for their support and commitment to the yearbook.

As an ending note, this yearbook is meant to preserve some of the most amazing, outlandish, unforgettable, and remarkable events of the last year. Weeks, months, or years down the road, look through it and relive those parts of CBA life that made it so great.

Question: Where is Frank, and why is smoke billowing up from behind those trees?

Answer: Frank is standing inside the blast zone of a coal mine. There is smoke because the blast zone was active.

TEMPUS FUGIT...

As the year comes to a close many of us will be thinking about how quickly the year seems to have passed. When we look through our mental scrapbooks of all our favorite moments at CBA, Tempus fugit is especially poignant. We all wish we could relive the best times we have had. Whether it was scoring the winning point in a game, or finally mastering a difficult subject, we all have moments in our past that, while defining for us, seem to be only a small slice in time, out of proportion with the effects they have had.

Think back to the beginning of school. It seems like yesterday that we were returning to (or just becoming acquainted with) the Academy. Most of us were catching up with friends, adjusting to new schedules, going to the first sports games of the year all bringing us into the CBA community. These events took place over a series of days, yet when we look back on them, they seem to be only a series of instants in our lives. Why is this so? Maybe it makes it easier for us to recall the past. Whatever the case, we live in the present, using the past as a guide for the future.

Time does not only fly in the lives of students, but also in the lives of institutions. On September 14, 1959, busses pulled into the Academy for its first day of classes. Back then, there were only 150 students and the faculty was entirely composed of Brothers. Under the leadership of our first principal, Brother Albert Bernard McKenna, CBA began its rise to prominence. Over the years, several successors have continued to nurture the tradition of excellence. Today, CBA's student population quadruples that of its first year, and many lay teachers have joined the faculty. Although when examined closely, the process has obviously taken a long time. A conversation with any of the founding Brothers will show just how recent that first day seems. Even when comparing pictures from the first and current years, there are many similarities. The busses still pull into the same driveway, the Crazies still cheer in the same gymnasium, and students still converse outside their lockers throughout the day. Time has flown, and will continue to fly, through the lives of us and our school.

Seniors

In the last four years, we as a class have changed from a group of almost complete strangers to a kinship of seniors. With each year, we have met new people in our class and made new friends within our class. When we think back to memories of our time as underclassmen, it becomes clear how much we have grown while at the Academy.

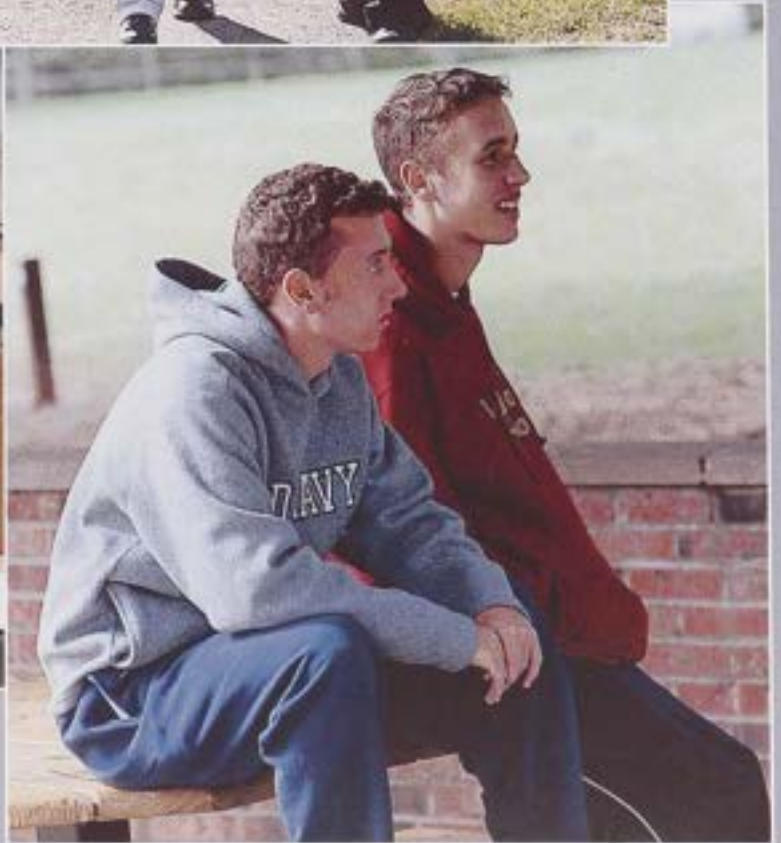

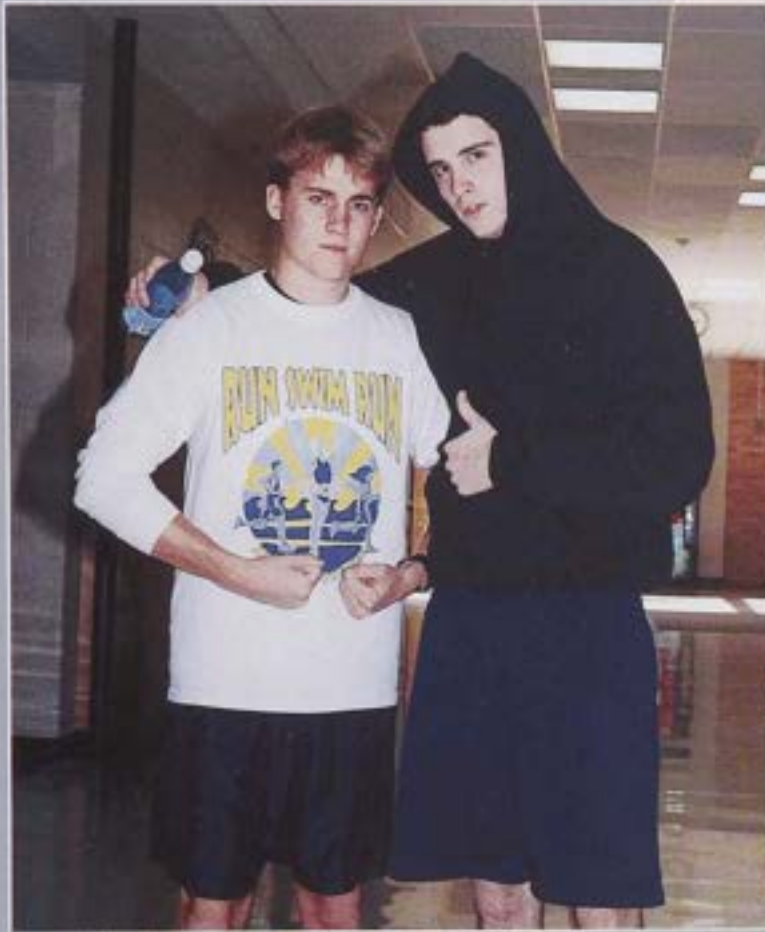

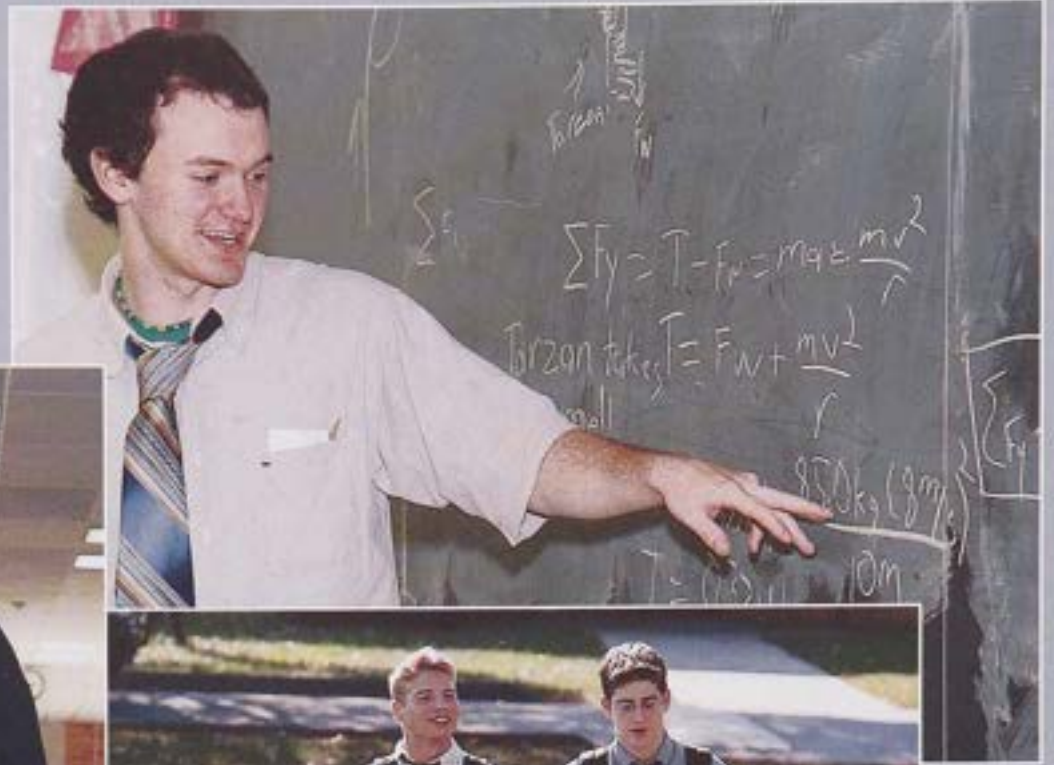

Over our time here, we have had many experiences as a class. We all remember Brother Dan's famous bus speech, the clue Brother Andrew gave each of us freshman year, and the developments of our friendships both on earth and with God. It seems odd to be able to say that we have been encountering these experiences for four complete years. These four years have been a large part of our lively existence, and CBA has become a second home for many of us.

Now that the end of the year has come, the realization that we must move on is also at hand. What is sure, however, is that the memories of our CBA careers will always hold a special place in each of us.

SERVICE PROJECT

Joseph
Miggins

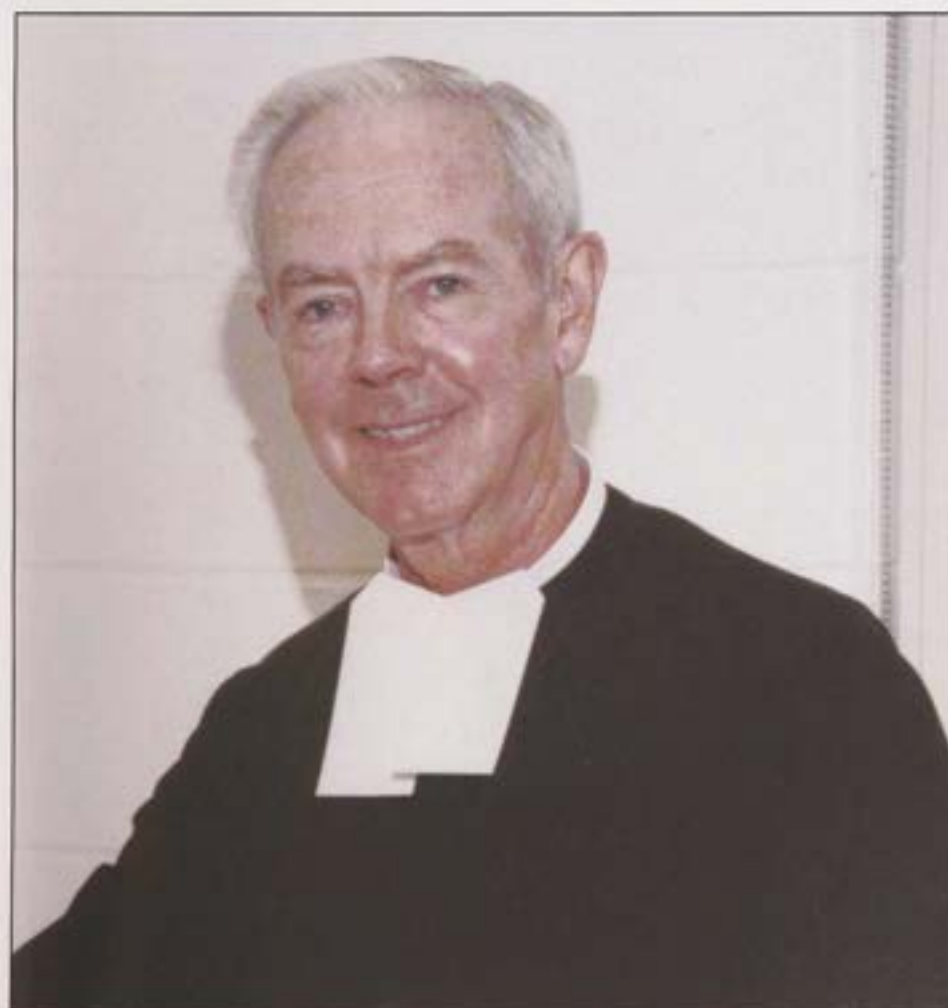

The service program is an integral part of a career at the academy. Although service has always been an essential element of the La Sallian Tradition, the service requirement was only initiated in 1994. A total of fifty hours is required for graduation. Since that time, students have completed service with numerous area organizations. Students serve on EMT squads, raise money for various agencies, tutor students, and teach religious education. Many students exceed the minimal number of hours required as they learn the value of service to the community.

Students reflect on the service they do, develop relationships with the people they serve, and foster close ties with the community.

"We won it on the field"

-Anonymous

Led by captains Nick LaBrocca and Joe Favata, this year's Colt squad finished an impressive regular season with 12 wins and only 2 losses. Under the veteran leadership of Coach Keane and Coach Matson, the Colts won their third Parochial State Title in five years. Senior Eric Zimmer headed the offense with 11 regular season goals while sophomore Michael Giallombardo had an impressive season in goal, with 12 shutouts. Seniors Kyle Gwyn-Williams, Dan Wehrle, Matt Rutkin, and O'Neil Peart also provided leadership.

This season the Colts set the state record for consecutive dual meet victories by winning their 248th consecutive dual meet in the first race of the season. The team was led by juniors Will Melofchik and Pat Ryan who placed 1-2 at states as the Colts captured their 8th straight state title. Also contributing were juniors Jake Zorski, Brett Fiorovanti, and Theo Shaheen, seniors Andrew Tignanelli and Ben Klaymen, sophomores Pete Glackin, Brian Keating, and Connor Campanella, and freshmen Greg Leach, Chris Horel, and Scott Havard.

Seniors Adam Miller, Ryan Moriarty, Brian Tyrrell, and Andrew Samuel led the field team, while seniors Paul Discipola, Chris Guenther, and Brian Giglio led the sprint team. All in all, the team had yet another successful year, with several national and state rankings.

WARSIITY BASKETBALL

The 2002 - 2003 Colts team picked up where last year's team left off and carried on the tradition of great CBA basketball teams. A couple of early losses startled the team into becoming a formidable presence in the conference. After a difficult overtime loss against Neptune in January, the Colts went on a winning streak that carried them through the rest of the way. The highlight of the season was hard fought victory over Raritan to win the Shore Conference Tournament. Lewis Thompson was tournament MVP.

The season ended in a most peculiar fashion with a 1:37 second "game" against St. Augustine Prep. An unusual set of circumstances saw the game suspended in a 74 - 74 tie. Unfortunately, the Colts could not sustain the momentum from Saturday to Monday and they lost that game in the South Jersey Parochial A Tournament.

Congratulations to Coaches Wicelinski, Hazleton and Mulligan and the team for an exciting basketball season.

The wrestling team continued last year's success with another outstanding year. After a strong second place showing in the Colt Classic, the team went on to score some big wins. Emotions ran high as the Colts faced St. John Vianney in the South Jersey Parochial A Semi-finals. The Lancers went home and the Colts continued to the next round, falling to Camden Catholic. John Niedrich was the first District Champion from CBA in 5 seasons, with a school record total 7 wrestlers qualified for the districts.

YMCA Youth & Government

Under the veteran leadership of Kevin Bertoncin, Hari Sundar, and Tim Calvert, members of the YMCA Youth & Government club worked through the year drafting legislation to present at a state-wide summit held in Trenton, where it was voted on by students from across New Jersey.

C.B.A.C.C.S.

Christian Brothers Academy Classical Society

The Christian Brothers Classical Society is comprised of students intent upon deepening their familiarity with the culture of the Greeks and Romans. The influences of these two civilizations are manifested in our daily lives: in our business and educational institutions, our art, our literature, our policies, our philosophies and even in our language. CBACCS recognizes that becoming familiar with these influential and artistic undercurrents is an important step towards becoming citizens of the West who can better appreciate, as well as critique, the world in which we live.

Culinary Arts Club

The Culinary Arts Club exists to promote culture among the student body. Mike Langan was president of the club, and Ms. Carroll advised the group. Highlights of the year included a fondue party and a planned pasta dinner. Seniors Damian Mazzochi and Magee Fahey also contributed to the club.

FILM CLUB

In the second year of CBA's Film Club, Ms. Carroll led the members on an artistic journey through some of the best movies of recent years. Together, they explored many genres of films and discussed the quality of the films artistic presentation as well as its thematic elements. While the club does present the students with an opportunity to enjoy themselves, it also gives them a chance to look at these movies in a way they otherwise may have not.

Academic Team

The academic team is a club comprised of some of the Academy's most well-informed and inquisitive minds. Traveling around the tri-state area participating in Jeopardy-style competitions under the new moderator Ms. Carroll, the team sought to prove their academic superiority. The competition was fierce, and the team was young. As one member stated, "Next year we will have a strong, seasoned team." Nevertheless, they competed valiantly and are prepared to return next year with a stronger team.

SAILING

For the first time in CBA history, our school has a sailing team to represent us. Under the direction of Mrs. Hayes, the sailing team and its six founding members--Stevie Burke, Aiden Ehrenburg, John Kempton, Tom Koscinski, Steve Widdis, and Donald Burke--competed throughout the year performing surprisingly well for a first year team. The team hopes to continue its success throughout the year and return next year to compete at an even higher level. Is it possible to add another state championship team to CBA's collection? We sure hope so.

LaSallian Youth

"The spirit of God will lead you where you did not plan to go."

St John Baptist DeLaSalle

Lasallian Youth try to live out the ideals of St. John Baptist de LaSalle: Faith, Service & Community. To do this, they attempt to explore their faith as young adult Christians through service and reflection. They serve the needs of their community by volunteering to work in programs that assist those who would otherwise be neglected. CBA LaSallian Youth reach out on a monthly basis to the "anawim" of the West Lake avenue section of Asbury Park. Through their "street ministry" of delivering student-made sandwiches and donated clothing to the needy and their tutoring of elementary students in the Sisters of Charity after school program, these young men of CBA encounter the Holy Presence of God in the brokenness of their neighbors.

PEGASUS

This year was an eventful one for the Yearbook. It was the first year with a new publishing company, an extra sixteen pages added to the ladder, and sixteen more pages of color. Because of the combined efforts of seniors Chris Stucko (Ed.), Pete Solecki, Frank Balsamello, Coleman Richdale, Ryan Pennell, Dave Ghoneim, Ryan Carretta, and Dan Galligan and underclassmen Ed Ryan, Bobby Bathmann, Ed Bishof, Josh Mathew, the book was a success.

THE SOPHOMORE EXPERIENCE

Our eyes passed over the words Signum Fidei as we veered away from the September sun. We exchanged stories of summer vacations and predictions of the coming school year as swarms of wasps wove in and out of the crowd.

And so began our sophomore year at CBA. Almost nothing was new to us except the sense of familiarity. The collection of hallways no longer seemed labyrinthine, the faces of classmates were no longer strange, and insomnia was now embraced as an effective study tool.

Tempus fugit. Although it is a popular belief that time flies when you're having fun, for the CBA sophomore who is attempting to complete his homework before midnight or hand in his term paper before the deadline, it seems that time has no mercy. But then what fuels the sophomore? The statement is self-fulfilling, as sophomores, we have proven ourselves diligent, persistent, and responsible.

Yet like the reputation of CBA, our personal success is not solely measured by past achievements; rather, it is built on the thirst for success in our sophomore year.

FRESHMAN

IN THE BEGINNING...

Freshman Year: A Perspective

As I entered Christian Brothers Academy for the first time and looked around at my new classmates, I realized that this would be my second home for the next four years. As I learned more of the great tradition which I would be expected to uphold, I felt both a tinge of nervous anticipation and an overwhelming sense of the La Sallian fraternity. It was at this moment that I realized I was part of something greater than myself.

My first days as a freshman alleviated my anxiety and further enforced my initial feeling of belonging. Throughout my middle-school years, I had heard how difficult CBA could be. Nevertheless, any fears I had of being overwhelmed quickly subsided when I entered my first class. The teachers reshaped my view of learning, class became enjoyable, funny, and interesting. The sense of community at Christian Brothers, however, is the truly unique aspect of the school.

Administration, Faculty & Staff

2003 LaSallian Educator of the Year

Brother Michael Dwyer, FSC

With a life-long commitment to the spirit and values of the La Sallian tradition Brother Michael Dwyer has, over his seventeen years at CBA filled a variety of roles. Each endeavor he has undertaken as a minister of grace, as an effective manager and in association with his La Sallian colleagues. Bro. Michael came to CBA in 1986 and quickly established himself as one of the best teachers at the Academy. His knowledge of, and passion for, history are legendary among his students and colleagues. In 1991, and contrary to his personal interests, Bro. Michael took on the role of Associate Principal for Student Affairs. This was a demanding and time consuming position and one that took its toll on him. Even after suffering from a difficult physical illness, Bro. Michael remained in this position until 1996.

As Associate Principal, Bro. Michael was a strong and fair disciplinarian, acting out of concern for the students, the faculty and the overall welfare of CBA. He was encouraging of the work of the faculty and an enthusiastic supporter of the initiatives of the students. Bro. Michael distinguished himself as the protector for the weaker students, with a special concern for those who were the object of abuse by their peers. He worked closely in association with his La Sallian colleagues in promoting the overall principles and objectives of the Academy.

Upon completion of his term as Associate Principal, Bro. Michael took the challenging step of returning to the teaching faculty. He has continued to remain a positive member of the faculty, offering encouragement to younger teachers and support to all of his colleagues. Brother has shown that the transition from administration to faculty can be achieved with ease and grace. Blessed with a dry wit and booming voice, Brother is a gentle man and a true gentleman. His generosity and magnanimity serve as compliments to his Christian humility. A man of genuine compassion for his students and colleagues, Brother allows his presence to speak without the need to be intrusive or overwhelming. He is a man of clear faith, endowed with the vision of La Salle, and enlivened with the gift of wisdom through his many years of teaching and administration.

The faculty at Christian Brothers Academy is proud to honor as La Sallian Educator of the Year, Bro. Michael Dwyer.

Administration

One of the great assets of Christian Brothers Academy is the stability and strength of the Administration. Brother Andrew O'Gara, who has served first as principal (1979-1991) and as president (since 1991) is noted for his ability to remember names of every student at CBA. Principal for the past 12 years, Brother Ralph Montedoro has distinguished himself through his skills in management and organization, working tirelessly in promoting Open House and CBA activities. Mr. Peter Santanello has spent the past 21 years developing faculty and curriculum to ensure that we are always in the fore in education and technology. It is Brother Daniel Gardner whom the students encounter on a day to day basis. His firm and fair hand mediates the discipline code and promotes the values of the LaSallian Tradition among the student body.

History

This year, the History Department expanded its course offerings to include Advanced Placement Human Geography. This course, offered to sophomores, is taught by Brother Cyril O'Neill. This course joins advanced placement courses in U.S. History, European History, Psychology and Economics, in a strong curriculum of history offerings. Under the direction of Mr. Jeffrey Matson the History Department continues to develop those courses which promote sound critical thinking, analytical writing and historical understanding. When one considers the number of CBA alumni who major in history, business and psychology in college, it must certainly be a credit to both the quality of teaching and the curriculum advanced by our History Department.

Math

DEPARTMENT

The Mathematics Department boasts a team of highly qualified and enthusiastic teachers. Mr. Thomas Heath and Brother Christian Jones have been teaching Math at CBA for over thirty years, and they continue to excite CBA students in the study of mathematics. With the inclusion of TI-83 and various computer programs in the math curriculum both veteran and younger teachers have adapted to new strategies and techniques to make sure that the CBA students continue to get the best in mathematics education. Mrs. Amanda Lobkowitz has guided the department through curriculum development and technological infusion.

This year the department welcomed Mr. Michael Wheeler '96 to the veteran staff joining Mr. Santanello, Mr. Speidel, Brother Stephen, Mr. Kane and Mr. Melosh.

English

DEPARTMENT

With a reputation as one of the strongest English departments in the area, CBA continues to emphasize classical reading and strong writing skills. Students are lead through the great masters of American, British and Greek literature as well as a chance to dabble in the contemporary authors and literary movements. Electives which focus on writing skills help th students to further develop those skills enabling them to enjoy success both in college and in their professional lives. Mr. McKenna heads a team of exceptional teachers who love both the dynamic of the classroom and the pleasure of reading itself. Mr. Mark Signorelli fit well into the community of scholars as he joined Mr. Fili, Mr. Maier, Mr. Lelesi, Mrs. Maroney, Mr. Nunan, Mr. Lippin, Mr. Lojko and Mr. Steve Smith in the on-going struggle to help adolescent males appreciate the finer points of literature.

DEPARTMENT

Mr. David Duh has lead the Science Department through many changes over the past several years. Having settled well into their new laboratories and classroom space, the Department continues to offer relevant and updated courses to keep the students continually at an advantage in the study of scientific knowledge and theory.

This year is especially exciting for the Science Department as they welcomed three new teachers. Mr. Ross Fales, Mr. Craig Dashkavich and Mr. John Hanley joined Mrs. Slattery, Mrs. Bednarz, Mr. Mulligan and Mrs. Baker in the pursuit of scientific learning and teaching.

An ever-growing curriculum, complete with advanced placement courses in Biology, Chemistry, Physics and Environmental Science is offered to prepare students for the study of science, technology and engineering as they move on to college.

DEPARTMENT

The World Language Department saw a change in leadership over the summer as Mrs. Maureen Buskin stepped down after a 16 year tenure as Department Chair. Her years as chair saw many changes in the department, including an expansion of course offerings and the hiring of additional faculty to facilitate the goals and objectives developed during those years. Mrs. Jeannine Maloney, one time chair of the Language Department at Mater Dei High School, has shown a desire to continue to keep the department ahead of the curve in world language education.

Mr. William Ryan joined the faculty this year, bringing many years of experience teaching Spanish at Manasquan High School. His presence, along with veteran teachers Mrs. Decker, Mr. Dave Smith, Mrs. Ver Hoven, Mr. Dailey and Mrs. Hall, forms the basis for a strong and highly professional department.

DEPARTMENT

Fulfilling the commitment of the Academy to LaSallian education, each student is required to take four years of Religious Studies. Under the direction of Mr. Gregory Higgins, the department guides the student both intellectually and in his religious formation. While respecting the diverse religious backgrounds of the student body, the emphasis of the department is within the Roman Catholic Tradition of beliefs.

At the end of the first marking period, Mrs. Marybeth DeBlasio resigned, and CBA welcomed Mr. Jim Tortorici. Mr. Pat Scott, Dr. Garry Koch, Ms. Mary Trank, Mr. Tim Sewnig, Mr. Jack Thawley and Brother Daniel Gardner, round out the department.

Among the most popular programs offered by the Academy are the department's Christian Service/Learning and GURU Peer Ministry offerings. They provide the students the opportunity exercise their faith commitment through service to others.

DEPARTMENT

Mr. Joseph Prioli
Chair

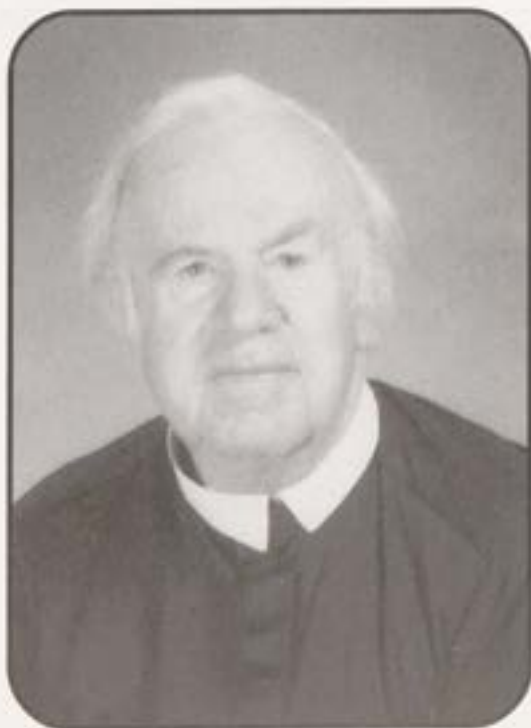

Keeping CBA ever updated in the arena of technology and computer science education, the Computer Science Department offers courses to all freshmen and sophomores. An advanced placement courser is offered for upperclassmen. Mr. Joseph Prioli coordinates both the department and serves as director of technology. He can be seen throughout the school day, hi-tech weapon in hand, answering the call to repair some malfunctioning computer. Mrs. O'Connor and Mr. Smith ably train the students in both computer applications and programming. Brother Michael assists in all areas of computer services.

Physical Education

DEPARTMENT

Health and Physical Education are integral aspects of CBA's commitment to educate the whole person. The freshman program emphasizes study skills and personal development. The sophomores take drivers education. Seniors prepare for life outside the Academy as they confront contemporary adolescent issues. Mr. Ed Wicelinski chairs the department, working with Mr. Baldi and Mr. Kenney.

Mr Michael Baldi: Gym 2, 3, 4, Health 4, Driver's Ed; Wrestling Head Coach.

Mr. Edward Wicelinski: Health and Physical Education Department Chair; Freshman Study Skills. Gym 1, Health 1, Health 4; Varsity Basketball Coach

Brother Henry McGrath

The CBA community was saddened in November as Brother Henry McGrath, a 20-year member of the Guidance Department, passed into eternal life.

Brother was honored in 1999 as the LaSallian Educator of the year.

Well into the age when most people were enjoying retirement, Brother Henry continued his ministry to the Academy as freshman guidance counselor.

Over three-thousand students fell under his tutelage during his tenure at CBA. While his first focus with each student was academics, Brother Henry took a keen interest in his students other endeavors and activities, and was frequently seen at various athletic contests and school events. Always supportive of the students, Brother's life was one filled with compassion and, most importantly, a zeal for the evangelical mission of his religious calling. Brother Henry, a spiritual man, influenced the lives of his students and was motivated by the loving concern for their total welfare. In this way, he clearly lived his vows in the spirit of St. John Baptist de La Salle.

Although his health was failing over the last couple of years, Brother Henry continued to come into his office and to meet with students. He began this school year even though it looked as if he lacked the strength to continue. Finally, the heart which had reached out to so many and was yet so ill, ceased its rhythmic beat. Still, the energy and strength with which he lived his life, continues in the lives of the many students and alumni whom he touched in his ministry. Among them are two members of the guidance department, Mr. Joe Finn and Mr. Tim Egan. They carry in their own work the legacy of their freshman guidance counselor, Brother Henry McGrath, as they inspire and encourage the CBA students of this age to academic, personal and spiritual wholeness and success.

Time flies . . . Time begins anew.

This yearbook would not have been possible without the dedication of a number of people. First, the staff needs to be thanked. Several students in particular gave extraordinary dedication to the project. Those who worked on the Senior Section worked particularly well together. Peter Solecki designed the pages, Frank Balsamello cropped the pictures and Coleman Richdale came up with witty captions. Joe Lukasiewicz was another essential player. As the year progressed, his layouts continued to improve exponentially. His layouts, many of the clubs pages, are among the most creative in the book. Ryan Pennell and Dave Ghoneim also offered their talents to the yearbook. We declined. Just kidding. They created the initial sports pages which set the tone for the rest of the section, a most important contribution. Juniors Ed Ryan, Dan Lukasiewicz and Jason Krausman and sophomores Josh Mathew, Ed Bishof, Rob Bathmann and Mike Coughlin also did a great job. Ryan Carretta, Coleman Richdale and Greg Plakoudas added to the yearbook with their photographic skills.

Mike Cannon, our Jostens representative, should also be thanked for the help he gave us throughout the year. He taught the staff how to use the program we use to design the yearbook and offered a number of suggestions to get our minds thinking. This was our first year with Jostens, and it was quite obviously a very successful one. Our faculty advisors were another source of inspiration. Dr. Koch made the yearbook office a fun place to be. Without his comforting sense of humor, it would have been easy to fall into the pile of cardboard boxes in the corner of the room and admit defeat. Mr. Thawley was another essential player. He took 95% of the pictures in this book, so without him we would have had quite a few empty picture boxes. Thank you to Mr. Prioli for wiring the yearbook office and setting us up with a new laser printer. Its speed is much appreciated. Finally, thanks go out to Brother Ralph, Brother Dan, and Brother Andrew for their support and commitment to the yearbook.

As an ending note, this yearbook is meant to preserve some of the most amazing, outlandish, unforgettable, and remarkable events of the last year. Weeks, months, or years down the road, look through it and relive those parts of CBA life that made it so great.

Question: Where is Frank, and why is smoke billowing up from behind those trees?

Answer: Frank is standing inside the blast zone of a coal mine. There is smoke because the blast zone was active.
